

rK ALLEGHENY Origins

Rebel Grey (Carl) working at video store... weekend marathon

Doesn't notice changes

Comes out and the city is deserted... finds corpse and there is the birthday card hieroglyph on the body

Finds Mr Baird

Everyone got invitation and they left to pilgrimage locations for get their instructions

No explanation

A few weeks go by and then everyone came back

Meanwhile... Carl finds group downtown Chicago of others not knowing what is going on... they have gathered

Also MIB style... cars drive by with four dudes no explanation

They try to capture the MIB in one car but once cornered, the four self-immolate

Carl and his crew aren't murderers... they are shocked

But then everyone comes back

In Carl's group... there are those reacting badly because those returning act as if nothing happened (yet evidence they were gone like dead pets)

Carl's group who act up are sent to mental institutions

Carl, Elle, K.K., Barry stick together with Mr Baird

There are others in the Carl crew

They meet to discuss what to do

Cuts.

Somalia... pirate trying to raid ship... marines show up... chase

Chase ends in Egypt at archeological dig... pirates run in ruins

Marines pursue... firefight

But they find a chamber that is super alien hi-tech (Nooey Tokyo story)

Pirates think they walked into a trap and are paranoid

But marines are also confused

Pirates try to destroy glowing orb in reactor in center of futuristic chamber

DEW

A million are transformed into powered beings (ironic powers)

Bill Ides power to control unaffected

Carl and his main crew and others are not super powered but also know what happened... they are immune to telepaths... super powered are immune to telepaths mainly (telepaths can save their lives with telepathy against other super powered)

Others in the Carl crew are controlled by Bill Ides

Carl and his crew and others who can resist telepaths gather and have their Root rebellion in Allegheny National Park

K.K. goes down to Route 66 (for Crunchy story)

Barry transforms to Chupa later and goes to UK (for Reigh story)

The Root will end up having a run-in with Adam Allfather, the Trumps and Crunchy... they die to Allfather but the Meddler resurrects them

rK CHICAGO Origins

Sir Real origins framed through Ciel and Ardent origins
Sir Real MO is to help superpowered beings learned to hone their powers

Ciel – Carole Lacan

Before DEW

She was an ethical journalist... investigating Big Pharma corruption

She was exposing it, so they hired assassins

Sister and kids visiting... assassin killed sister and family thinking it was Ciel

Ciel came home to see it... so still going to whistleblow

Assassin needs to finish the job

Ciel goes to hospital to visit niece in coma

In parking lot.. she starts car but sees old lady fall and gets out... car bomb detonates but Ciel is burned and broken bones but not dead

She wakes and has brain damage that causes her to speak gibberish

She has to work with speech pathologists to regain speech

Assassin has still failed... that assassin will later be the one that Jingle killed in Mexico

Ciel recovers slowly in hospital... speech problem and paralysis

DEW happens while she is recovering

Ciel wakes and looks in mirror... her powers kick in... she can speak and move

But then she realizes she is the nurse in the room through the mirror image

She can body slide based on mirror reflections

If she stays in a body too long... the body starts to turn like her original body... burned, then gibberish, then paralysis

So Ciel bounces body to body a lot

She ends up getting her revenge against the Big Pharma people which Mr Dude allows against Bill Ides

Sir Real is now paying attention to Ciel

He approaches her to tell her to stop with revenge... and she is irritated

Sir Real takes action against her

So she leaves in a huff... and gets over to California and takes over body of a pornstar

The pornstar was also a super powered being... Ardent Short term amnesia for the bodies Ciel uses

Ciel hides in mirror reflections and talks to people using their reflection.. that is where she is safe

Ardent is Jane Dough in porn

Ciel stays as Ardent for so long that Ardent becomes permanently burned

While Ciel is using Ardent body... Ardent is having the blackouts... and starting to get burned... the porn producers are worried

She is paranoid about her mirror image... porn producers is recommending that she sees a shrink

Ardent is a pyrokinetic that hadn't manifested her power because she didn't need it

She unleashed her fire rage and Ciel disappeared but producer gets burned

Now Ardent wanted revenge on Ciel believing that Ciel made Ardent burned through manifesting the pyrokinesis... but Sir Real knows that it is more nuanced

Sir Real wants Ardent to chill... they go back to New Mexico and train

He tries to train and coach Ciel and Ardent Ardent has bad bg from before DEW... grew up in New Mexico... mother paranoid about hot daughter Ardent being with stepdad... but dad was deadbeat drunk
She ran away from home and went to LA to be actress but ended up stripping and then drugs... but then clean up... small modeling gigs into porn as she gets over stage fright
She really gets into porn and loves it
Ciel and Ardent aren't much for heroism but they help for darker tasks, usually at HQ hanging out
Sir Real finds Amp with Realness and Temp with Powerhouse
He takes them on as true heroes.. battle Skank, Mr Dude, Phyllis and Ruby Xaq for Skank origin bg, and Sparx Teaser at end... Sir Real invited to be judge at Island Z

rK ROUTE 66 Origins

(the comic script has some good one-liners)

Crunchy origins (Sandy Stevens)

Before DEW

Crunchy upbeat... college student in San Diego but dropped out

She learns surfing and becomes good

DEW hits

She gains stone/sand powers

Downside... water makes her sand form into quicksand and she takes time to recover

Fire makes stone form molten and she takes time to recover

She wants to get back to Toronto to find her family

But Bill Ides won't let normies help her... so she is stuck in San Diego

She starts on foot... heads to Las Vegas.. very quiet because Bill Ides doesn't approve of gambling

Runs into Papazudo, Lush, and Wasteoid

Wasteoid killed several times... Meddler shows up and resurrects Wasteoid

Lush is with Skank.. battles Crunchy uses cars to drive across Route 66 because there is less resistance from Bill Ides run ins with Lex Talon, Chainsaw Girl, Trampolina, Loona, Caliber-841

eventually teams up with K.K., Iroc, Lugnut

meanwhile in Miami... Unitas origin video game candy store before DEW... sabotaged

Black Tab origins

Fiend

Unitas and Black Tab team... vs Fiend

Crunchy learns her powers during her trip

Eventually, Crunchy makes it to Chicago and battles the Host (Skank, Mr Dude, Phyllis)

Skank tries to recruit Crunchy but no dice

Crunchy just wants to get to Toronto

Skank warns against it

On way to Toronto, runs into Adam Allfather with Trumps.. converging with The Root in Buffalo

Allfather loses it and kills The Root... Crunchy can't stop it Teaser... The Meddler is at the scene of The Root murder suggesting resurrection

rK THE MED Origins

Bill Ides and DEW
Scoobird
Cuckoo Mittens and Fly Pig meanwhile origin of Evolucia and Manatee origin of Boogey Girl and Manuka meeting Scribe and Mook... founding Atlantis Totem battle and then joining
Bill Ides battling the Realness
Bill Ides kicking out Hellgrade... and setting up Rule in Levant
Bill Ides negotiates with Evolucia about youth
Speaks with Ginman and Flo
Sir Real mocks
Sir Real vs The Meddler
Bill Ides and his Manifesto
Then...
Invited by King King to Island Z
King King wants his judges

Island Z

King King took 26 people... 25 were awoken to paradise all with letter for names, and 1 was raised in darkness and horror 25 raised in white chamber... only world they know... then walls come down and they can see each other... they are free
Hotel resort available... paradise
Then Zed is released on the others
Turns out 26 were memory wiped by King King, but stolen from Argus's Temple world
Going to Templeworld cancels your powers if you had any from DEW and imbues if you didn't have powers
Zed goes homicidal... but then manifests powers
But Vee also manifests powers to protect surviving 25
F honours E... changes name to Effy
Literature in library of resort makes them believe they are clones... that were made after humans destroyed themselves
King King invited four judges (including Bill Ides and Sir Real) because he wants them to present themselves and give the survivors a purpose
Sir Real thinks it is a sick experiment... he vows to deal with King King
Bill Ides gives a pat speech that is misleading but he feels the smart ones will understand the message later

Sir Real teleports Argus to the island to absorb Zed to Templeworld hoping it will cancel Zed being powered Vee and a few survivors use Vee's power to get off the island... but they learn that King King lied to them and that the human race has survived

King King is trying to sell the Judges on the idea that the human race should be eradicated and replaced with memory wiped that are reprogrammed to accept super powered beings

King King has a solid idea except for the genocide of personalities... and those that can erase memories aren't interested (the judges)

Bill is worried about the experiment... and he doesn't reveal it... but those that come out of Templeworld as non-powered have the Root immunity from Bill's mental influence

Bill realizes that Argus could be used to trump Bill's power

rK TOKYO ORIGINS "Shiv & Shroud"

NOOEY Origin

(from Aphrodite comic script)

Nooey (Ruth) is now in Tokyo as the Batman for r/K

Background story for Nooey

In the 60s before DEW, there was a US general that was paranoid USSR could only be having success with nuclear weapons if they were getting help... he became paranoid that there were aliens in the galaxy and that they were communist. The aliens were helping USSR

So general had secret Cronos project to build a Direct Energy Weapon and have it in space as a satellite around earth

By 70s the project was released, but by 80s the satellite was drifting away from earth

Team went up to retrieve it, but discovered a wormhole

Scientists discovered Photonic Script code in the wormhole and it was a deciphered message encoded by future humans... 5000 years later

Those humans provided knowledge of cybernetics and advanced computing

80s researchers used the knowledge to create Nooey and other super soldiers

Nooey is curious and finds all the undeciphered Photonic Script code... she has the intellect to decipher it and it makes her go rogue when she learns from it

Nooey then went rogue and killed everyone associated with the program, some of the other super soldiers escaped her and General escaped

Nooey then lives as a vigilante

Ukita is one of the super soldiers that escaped... she is working as an assassin and then works her way up in the Yakuza

Ukita uses her cybernetic knowledge to create cyborg assassins for the Yakuza

Nooey has to take out the assassins and remove evidence of tech advancement because the knowledge she gained from the photonic scripts in the wormhole inform her about the coming DEW event

Nooey later goes into space and finds the wormhole... now she can access photonic script from 100,000 years in the future

She learns about the DEW weapon...

Nooey constructs the lab in Egypt... and the DEW weapon

Ukita tries to destroy the lab... Nooey battles and wins

MR JINGLE Origin

In Tokyo... Nooey is cyborg assassin imbued with shadow powers after DEW

Calypso in the 8th Dimension

Calypso torments evil people

She is working on Fred... and become an insomniac to avoid Calypso

Mr Jingle is an assassin where when he kills someone... he takes over their body temporarily

His own form is an apparition... can't be touched

When he leaves a body, the form left behind is a blank mannequin made of bone

He has uniform look as Mr Jingle

Bear Ramage and Mr Jingle started in Chicago and related to the Ravenswood Syndicate

Bear Ramage used Manson style cult to brainwash Mr Jingle's family

He made them try to kill Mr Jingle

Mr Jingle moved down to Mexico to escape the Syndicate

Then DEW

Mr Jingle's real power is to make other people's powers backfire (like Rogue) and after DEW, Bear Ramage sent a powered assassin to kill Jingle

But Jingle used his power to backfire the assassin

The assassin was the one that could take over bodies and leave behind bone mannequin

That assassin was destroyed and Mr Jingle fused his power with the assassin

Mr Jingle went over to Tokyo to work with Nooey, but then they both met Calypso

Bear Ramage animates objects but they have personality that match their form and function... ie. animated rock is stupid, animated car follows rules of road unless police car, etc.

Bear Ramage goes to Tokyo to deal with Jingle, but finds Jingle looking like the assassin he hired... doesn't know it is Jingle

Bear Ramage robs a bank... animates the vault and tickles it so it sneezes open

But then Bear Ramage saves himself by animating Jingle's mannequins which became foot soldiers for him

In Tokyo, Jingle is a private investigator... Fred hires Jingle to get Calypso away from him

But Calypso and Jingle hit it off

Bear Ramage still searching for Jingle

The Meddler uses powers on Nooey and makes her into the dream form... puts everyone in Tokyo to sleep
Sir Real fixes it

Calypso brings Phyllis to Tokyo to battle Dr Pang and force him to help wake up Tokyo

It is when Tokyo is asleep that Bear Ramage experiences insomnia... it is driving him mad so he has Cello muse animated... D-string... Dee plays for him and lullabies him

Bear Ramage chased back to North America

Bear Ramage usually travels in animated armoured truck

Nooey and Jingle... trojan horse... in armoured car... but Ramage fill it with water through gun port... then they make the armoured truck sneeze but rewiring it and they get sneezed out

Calypso, Nooey, and Jingle kick animated mannequins out of Ramage HQ and it becomes their HQ

Heron arrives from Atlantis and joins the team

When Heron arrives, Jingle uses his backfire power with Nooey... and the power Meddler shifted transfers and Nooey goes back to her cyborg assassin form while Heron gains the dream realm power
Ending of graphic novel that introduces Tokyo would do a teaser for Argus

CALYPSO Origin

Calypso before DEW was homeless girl that hid in art gallery and slept there every night
Then powers gave her the 8th Dimension Ruiner, Wizard Sleeve and Candy Pink as allies and mentors Barb Papa as an antagonist

rK TORONTO Origins

Allfather latent powers... HT won't let the powers expressed Adam Allfather in island prison... into barracks town on island
Into main city, meet Guy thief and Soma/Amos Allfather needs to buy passage out
HT vs Bill Ides
Allfather can get payment of stamps, trading cards, etc. ... from scum couple
They steal it and then Assassins kill the scum couple Allfather buys his way out
Meets Trumps in Buffalo
Goes bad with them a bit
Then The Root run-in.. Allfather pyrokinesis kicks in crazy
HT tries to have Bill attacked by The Realness, but Bill shows he uses mindcontrolled human army to protect himself Realness wanted access to their loved ones in Toronto

r/K STORIES

Atlantis: A marvel of futuristic architectural design. Retaining the beauty of its ancient origins – water streams and lush gardens cover the landscape in the form of fountains, waterfalls, trees, ivy-covered statues, and rolling hills. Huge temples of stone and glass house the Atlanteans. The city is open to all cooperative superpowered beings. Evolucia's laws drafted by Scribe are defended by Scribe's legions of stone soldiers.

Stavertonia: Deep in the Allegheny National Park, the Root have their headquarters at the top of a mountain around the complex of a deserted radio tower. They built habitats out of old garages, offices, and storage units. The radio tower complex was ideal for vantage over the nearby lands as well as for communications with other bewildered refugees of the Dark Energy Wave event. There is a small barracks town at the base of the mountain where non-officers in the Root have organized an independent town.

Meat Market: Skank converted an early 20th century factory into her headquarters for the Host. The factory is connected through a small bridge to a series of smaller buildings across the road. The Meat Market HQ has a nightclub on the main floor. The factory is at the edge of the old textile factory in downtown Chicago. Skank's private chamber is on the top floor of the factory, while the factory has several basement "dungeon" levels.

Stonehenge: the ancient druid ruins of Stonehenge host the congregation of Ginman's cult. Each day, Ginman leads his congregation to the ruins for his sermons. There are a series of neighboring towns that support Ginman's cult and his band of superpowered beings, the Uprising. Lobotomous Coal keeps a storm over the site of the ruins. Ginman has a bunker complex underneath one of the town's churches.

Central Park: Florence Harris lived for thirty years in an extravagant penthouse mansion at the top of a residential building with a perfect view of Central Park. She tended to her extensive gardens on the rooftop balconies. After DEW, Flo restructured the building into a HQ for the Hierarchy. Waterfalls connect between floors. Ikon can be seen from Flo's building and the Hierarchy organize many events in Central Park.

Zoodles: The Hideous Twist knocked down the CN Tower and replaced it with his own ominous surreal figure. He uses his mind-control powers to create an illusion for Toronto's residents that they are living through a devastating nuclear fallout apocalypse. In daytime, he creates the illusion that the heat is scorching, and the survivors of his genocide must use umbrellas when walking around outside. At night, he rains down razor hail on the city. The appearance of the city is that many buildings were demolished by vandals, however, the buildings are merely abandoned. Twist built a prison barracks city on Center Island.

Nth Rock: a large asteroid floating unnaturally around the orbit of Jupiter. Inside the asteroid is a high-tech complex that stores thousands of cryonic and stasis chambers filled with doppelgangers of Earth's superpowered beings that originate from alternate universes. In the complex is the mysterious gateway to alternate universes. Sassy is the gatekeeper and guardian of Nth Rock. Sassy's presence generates a mold that grows inside the complex on the walls and over the cryo-chambers.

Limbo Lair: Olegras can consume beings that will end up in her Dragon Lair Limbo realm. In the realm, Olegras appears in her all-powerful dragon queen form. Limbo resembles traditional mythological impressions of Hell. There are gigantic buttes and bottomless chasms. There are extensive caverns as well as a darkened sky overhead with elements of illogical wood rafters. In Limbo, most of the consumed transform into mythical creatures, such as, demons, ghouls, and imps. However, there are also creatures that emerge naturally from the realm, such as, the Strave. Some inhabitants are barely altered when they arrive from Earth. Olegras can regurgitate beings out of Limbo, and it is possible to escape through the top either through flying or by climbing the bizarre rafter structure. Few have escaped.

8th Dimension: Calypso's surreal dimension is accessed through visual art on Earth. The 8th Dimension is a true wonderland and all laws of logic collapse into madness. Calypso is all-powerful in her realm. The 8th Dimension can fool its captives and appear as normal as Earth, although it will still follow a nightmare logic.

Templeworld: Argus and Temple absorb victims into Templeworld. The realm is a savage land full of mythical prehistoric beasts. Life is primitive for survivors of the realm. When superpowered beings enter Templeworld they lose their powers. When normal humans escape Templeworld they arrive on Earth with superpowers. There is only one known way to escape Templeworld and it is by passing through Ablack who appears as a black doorway portal at the peak of a mountain in Templeworld. Beasts in Templeworld can be hunted, but they cannot be tamed for domestication and farming.

Island Z: Superpowered beings discovered that it was not possible for them to have offspring even though regular humans still could. An array of elite superpowered beings set up an experiment on Island Z to test if modified superpowered beings would be able to breed. Bill Ides and Sir Real were invited to judge the results.

The Root...

Carl working over weekend in video rental shop doesn't notice mass Exodus event. City is emptied. He meets the other rejects. They formulate a plan to figure out what is going on. They try to stop patrol car but end up killing them. Then, everyone from the city returns and act like nothing happened. Paranoia sets in. But, then the DEW.

UN convoy raided by Somalian pirates off coast of East Africa. US Marines pursue the pirates onto the mainland. Pirates hide in ancient palace complex that was part of an archaeological dig. Marines and pirate end up in futuristic chamber in temple and pirates get paranoid thinking they were led to a trap by the Marines. Pirates try to blow up future chamber but set off the machine that creates the DEW event.

DEW event transformed a million seemingly random people into superpowered beings. Some powers proved immediately fatal while others bestowed the person with incredible abilities. Powerful telepaths began to rule their regions and could control the non-superpowered human. Bill Ides controlled as many non-superpowered humans as he could. He makes humans not understand what happened.

The Root organized non-superpowered beings as a rebellion force known as the Root. The Root planned to stop Bill Ides. They didn't realize that they were being protected by Carl's dog, Mr. Baird, who had acquired powerful telepathic powers during the DEW event. Meanwhile, Adam Allfather was trying to escape Zoodles Toronto and Crunchy was making her way across the country using the old Route 66. Eventually, all of those heroes converged at Niagara Falls.
