

STAR WARS – HUTT EMPIRE: GOTTA I

(see bottom of doc for cast of characters)

Kar Wrot was a Sith Master that was sick and tired of the duopoly of Jedi vs Sith, and Kiken vs Hutt
Kar Wrot especially hated that Kiken's implicated themselves in the Jedi and made it a political entity
Kar Wrot put together his disciples from disenchanting Jedi and Sith and intended to restructure the galaxy
The Hutts supported Kar Wrot, but the Kikens opposed him
Buman was a crime syndicate and PMC army in the galaxy
Gotta I (the First) was the boss of Buman
Wrot and his disciples conquered Kiken controlled worlds and exterminated the Kikens
The Sith Empire turned against Wrot and allied with the Jedi Order to take down Wrot who had Buman support
The Sith Empire did scorched earth on their own territories to have Wrot's troops run low on supplies
Ayla Noxx was a powerful Jedi Master who left the Order and joined Wrot and became his righthand
Kar Wrot and Ayla Noxx discarded their ambitions of galactic conquest and focused on crushing the Sith Empire and replacing it with their own order
Darth Obyss was the leader of the Sith Empire, and Darth Gor rose up as a general to fight against Kar Wrot and Ayla Noxx

Once Kar Wrot backed away from galactic conquest, the Republic rebuilt with libtarded ideology propagandized by Kikens through heavy-handed media control and propaganda
Kikens promoted homosexuality and the Mandalorians saw the weakness given they were a homo culture that enslaved their women
The Mandalorians exploited that the Republic was rebuilding and had been weakened, and they unleashed a galactic campaign to conquer the Republic
Gotta I and the Buman called out to Kar Wrot for help
The Jedi didn't help the Republic against the Mandalorians Kaxa Rol stepped up for the Jedi but no one joined her Kar Wrot was busy battling the Sith Empire and Darth Obyss and Darth Gor

Darth Obyss had so much power that he was able to fend off Kar Wrot and Ayla Noxx long term
Darth Gor grew weary of the war with Wrot and Noxx and he joined Kaxa Rol against the Mandalorians Darth Gor was a cyborg and he used his force powers to bend droids to his will
With Darth Gor fighting beside her, Kaxa Rol now had a full droid army to fight the Mandos
Others joined Kaxa and Gor

A planet ravaged by the Mandos had one surviving teen, Teeny Ban
Darth Gor arrives and is using his zombie droids to scour the planet for useful electronics or ordnance
Gor finds Teeny after she starts battling the zombie droids, her Force powers kick in with force lightning
Gor stays on the planet and trains Teeny
Two scavengers arrive – wookiee Bo Grryf and trandoshan Wrossk and they believe that they need to save Teeny from Gor Teeny protects them and befriends them. Gor leaves in a huff
Teeny wants revenge on the Mandos so Grryf and Wrossk agree to take her to Kaxa Rol

Titan and Jedi reject Lang Pall joined Kaxa and Gor returned
Then, Teeny shows up with Grryf and Wrossk
Gor is unhappy and Lang Pall leaves with him
Without the zombie droid army, Kaxa Rol has to think of a new plan
They decide they will go to the Mandalorian homeworld and destroy it
They arrive on Mando homeworld and notice that the planet is only protected by Roseccor clans
Roseccor clans are the weak males (and strong females) that are deemed unworthy to find in the galactic army
Dhagon Enta is the warden left on the planet to watch over the Roseccor clans

The Roseccors don't want to fight Kaxa's crew and ask to be liberated
Dhagon Enta realizes he will be killed and he escapes
Lang Pall shows up and decides to set himself up as the ruler of the planet
Kaxa, Teeny and the crew release the female Mando slaves
One of the slaves that is released is Teaa Nikkuz

Kaxa, Teeny, Grryf and Wrossk are called upon by Gotta I Gotta I gives them help in convincing Wrot and Noxx to come back and fight against the Mandos
The gang travel to Korriban for a meeting with Wrot and Noxx
Wrot and Noxx had left Korriban because Obyss apprentices Ivin Ra and Rono Drund had pressured them out
Ivin Ra and Rono Drund try to convince Kaxa's crew to ally with Obyss instead of Wrot and Noxx
To be persuasive, Obyss tells Ivin and Rono to join the Kaxa crew and help them against Mandos using Sith soldiers
When Kaxa's crew get back to the front with the Mandos they find Anda fighting alone against them just as Kaxa had started
Anda pretends to be a Jedi Order reject but she is an alien species that have their own connection to the force and training
Anda finds the Jedi and Sith disciplines amusing and she pretends to use them wrong but she is actually using her own style (drunken master shadowboxing)

Balbara is the archivist from Obyss's Sith Empire and she despises Sith that work with non-Sith
She begins hunting Kaxa's crew
She uses three disciples to help her – Darth Blivion, Darth Brim, Darth Murk
Teaa Nikkuz wants revenge on the Mandos and finds Darth Nix and pledges herself to Nix if Nix will train her and help her kill Mandos
The Kaxa gang is doing well against Mandos until Balbara and her disciples show up
Kaxa gang have to retreat and set up Plan B

Rono Drund is a traitor who helps Balbara find Kaxa's gang
The Mandalorians take a break from their conquest to deal with Lang ruling their homeworld
The focus becomes about Kaxa and her gang being hunted by Balbara and her Sith Masters

Teaa Nikkuz is training and Darth Nix brings her to Gotta I and suggests that they be Gotta's Praetorian guard

Darth Nix is an individualist and doesn't care for Buman but believes that Teaa should be centrally positioned in galactic affairs. Nix sticks around to make sure Teaa gets integrated into Buman

Ivin Ra (also Titan) is called upon by Lang Pall for help battling the Mandos

Ivin Ra takes some of the crew with him to the Mando homeworld

Lang Pall is killed by one of Balbara's disciples, Darth Murk

Ivin Ra kills Darth Murk

Kaxa takes the rest of the crew back into the Sith Empire to seek Kar Wrot and Ayla Noxx

Kaxa is pursued by Darth Brim

Brim is about to kill Teeny when Wrot shows up and kills Brim

Meanwhile, Blivion is sent to kill Darth Nix

Darth Nix is killed cheaply and Teaa avenges her master and kills Blivion

Teaa excuses herself from Gotta's service in order to find Kaxa's crew and work with them to take out Balbara

Kaxa's crew reconvene with Wrot and Noxx. Teaa introduces herself

Noxx discovers that Rono is a traitor and he escapes to become Balbara's apprentice

Kaxa's crew is now: Kar Wrot, Ayla Noxx, Ivin Ra, Teeny Ban, Teaa Nikkuz, Anda, Bo Grryf, Wrossk, and Kaxa

The crew travel to Gotta to consolidate their power

The Mandalorians were ramping up for their next campaign

Master Uthga (Kiken) ran a propaganda campaign against Gotta I and Kaxa's crew blaming them for the Mando campaign and labeling them as Sith conquistadors

Three Jedi Knights step forward to take on Kaxa's crew: Master Fide, Master Ritton, Master B'len

Alderaan Senator Sarl Ackley persuades the Republic to form an army with the Jedi Masters and battle Kaxa's crew

Jon Thask opposes Master Uthga and his agitation and preaches harmony claiming that Kaxa's crew are not the problem, but rather it is Darth Obyss and the Mandos

Darth Obyss moves to the edge of the Sith Empire and sets up at Korriban

The Mandos begin attacking rim worlds as they recover from their first campaign

Balbara follows behind the Mandos and converts the conquered to her insidious cause

Balbara acquires a savage squad and trains an apprentice, Darth Lasher

Lasher and Rono don't get along

Lasher was once an old friend of Gotta I

Lasher seduces Gotta I and convinces him to stop supporting Kaxa's crew

Gotta I kills Lasher

Gotta I calls Kaxa's crew back claiming it is dangerous for them to not be in a fortress

Kaxa's crew are on their way to stop the Mandos on the rim worlds

They fight Mandos but then get attacked by Uthga's Masters and the Republic Army, finally on their retreat
Darth Gor shows up and decimates Kaxa's crew

Kaxa's crew are taken and scattered on a variety of worlds
They are stripped of everything and hunted on those planets
Obyss faces the Republic army while the Mando keep burning rim worlds
Balbara is temporarily appeased and retreats to the Sith Empire

Thask heads out to help Ayla Noxx
Thask sends two apprentices to help the others in the Kaxa crew – Anjo'do and Ara Sero
Anjo'do helps Kar Wrot
Ara Sero helps Kaxa Rol
Meanwhile, Teaa Nikkuz is stuck on his planet and gets help from a Republic Senator/General Pol Otaki
Bo Grryf is helped by a droid, K8-N4 "Kate" but Kate turns out to be corrupted by Darth Gor Wrossk is helped by a droid, MN-D1 "Mindy"
When Mindy meets Kate, she realizes that Kate can't be trusted and destroys Kate Ivin Ra is stuck on Tronto – planet controlled by Estor the Hutt, keeps the people unaware that they are in the galaxy
SarI Ackley unleashes a virus on the planet where Anda was dumped Balbara goes after Teeny Ban on her planet

The Kaxa crew escape their planets
Landeron Ordo has taken over Mandos and stopped the Mando campaign. The Mandos retreat to their homeworld Landeron puts Enta in charge of the administration of the planet
Obyss wipes out the Republic army and kills the Jedi Masters
Gotta I gets Kaxa's crew back and they set up their plan to install the Hutt Empire
Kaxa's crew still has to defeat Balbara, Obyss, Gor, and Uthga and SarI Ackley
Senator Royce Halor of Naboo steps up to deal with SarI Ackley

The Republic is aligned with Royce Halor and will support Gotta I starting the Hutt Empire Uthga is ready to use the Jedi Order to stop Gotta, but Thask reveals he is a Sith Lord in disguise – Darth Vexus)
Vexus kills Uthga
Wrot and Noxx deal with Gor
Kaxa's crew deal with Obyss
The old Sith Empire is defeated. Kar Wrot runs the New Sith Empire which is aligned with the New Jedi Order run by Ayla Noxx
The Republic Senate answers to Gotta I who is the Emperor of the Galaxy
The only serious enemies left are Balbara and Landeron Ordo, and Darth Vexus
Ivin Ra takes some crew to take out Landeron Ordo
Kaxa takes some crew to take out Darth Vexus
Balbara and Gor survive in exile (Vert Schmeiar and Brewster)
Teaa Nikkuz put in charge of Buman

As leader of Buman, Teaa creates a proto Ammunition structure that later would exist for Beretta to connect with once Ammunition became galactic

Teaa's Syndicate were elite hit squads

They went after Darth Raze and Darth Void who popped up as rebels in the New Sith Empire

They also went after Master Sandaben, Master Nells, Master Yakkob, and Master Derico who popped up as rebels in the New Jedi Empire

Rule of Gotta I is peaceful and prosperous for the galaxy

STAR WARS – HUTT EMPIRE: OXRA GHOST FORMATION

(see bottom of doc for cast of characters)

The rule of Gotta I (Wal Vader) was prosperous for the galaxy and Gotta I felt it was important to have certain organizations structured a particular way

Gotta I wanted one clear enlightened despot ruler for the Jedi Order and the Sith Empire

Gotta I wanted a leader for the Republic who was a humanitarian and consensus builder

Gotta I wanted the Syndicate to oversee vice, and militia/mercenaries/bounty hunting in the galaxy

Tea Nikkuz (Tee Bona) ran the Syndicate during the Gotta I rule

Gotta I determined that a Gotta Emperor must choose their successor and then they would co-rule for a period of time and it would be finalized whether they would be approved as the next Gotta

Gotta II (Arick) presented as a Hutt sharing the Gotta I vision

During their co-rule, everything was still running smoothly

Gotta I passed away

Gotta II took over and he let the galaxy deteriorate

Gotta II didn't care about the health of the Republic and he wanted to run the Syndicate himself

Gotta II changed rules for the Syndicate so that in the galaxy no Force Sensitives were allowed to be bounty hunters, duelers or gladiators, and no droids could do it either

Gotta II preferred if there were wars within the Jedi Order and Sith Empire as well as wars between them
Slowly, the galaxy turned to shit under the rule of Gotta II

Fons Borner, real name, Ad (Thul Husk) was adopted and living with a farming family on Dantooine (the Freckers)

Kurt Frecker (Alan Baker) was the same age as Fons, and they grew up together like brothers

The father, Furd Frecker (Fred Baker) was a stepfather for the three Frecker kids and he was an abusive drunk

Furd pretended to Kurt's younger sisters that he was a Jedi Knight and he used cheap magic tricks to try to prove it

The sisters did Furd's phony Jedi training and learned the lessons were worthless

The sisters went into a cave to use the fake Jedi training against kinrath, and Kurt and Fons had to rescue them

Fons and Kurt almost died trying to save the sisters

Furd can in with rifle and chased off the kinrath in time

Fons recovered and vowed to do something about what happened

Fons was determined to train for real and become a fitness fanatic and expert in combat, marksmanship and everything related to combat

Kurt became Fons's workout partner

Fons hears a voice through the Force and he is called back to the cave

In the cave he hallucinates and sees Kurt and the sisters killed by kinrath

Fons slaughters the kinrath and at the end Furd shows up and Fons almost kills Furd, but it was just a hallucination

Fons exits the cave and sees a shadowy hunter on the cliff. The hunter on the cliff falls off the cliff and dies
Fons realizes that it isn't about him saving others

Fons examines the corpse and learns it was a bounty hunter with a mysterious reputation

Fons finds a datapad. Fons field strips the corpse and buries the bounty hunter

Fons decides he will get off Dantooine and assume the identity of the bounty hunter

The bounty hunter has a ship at the Dantooine spaceport

The bounty hunter's name was Fons Borner which is the name he took (real name was Ad)

The bounty hunter was there to kill Furd who had an old bounty on him, and it seems that the real Fons was killed by Furd

Now known as Fons, Ad brings evidence with him of Furd's death

Kurt joins Fons

Fons and Kurt arrive on Taris and meet with Pico the Hutt (Al Hagman)

Fons Borner tries to claim bounty on Furd by showing proof, and Pico is confused because she knows that Ad isn't the original Fons

Pico finds the whole thing amusing and accepts the new Fons Borner, but won't accept the evidence of Furd's death

However, Pico offers Fons and Kurt a new opportunity

As Fons and Kurt leave the swoop stadium where Pico is, Mandy Fett (Kaxa Rol) enters and sees new Fons in the armor and wonders what happened. She seems bitchy but Fons is in love

Fons is given the bounty info from Pico, but Mandy hacks the datapad and changed the info so that Fons erroneously goes to Kashyyyk

On Kashyyyk, Syndicate goons are looking to capture Shaairry Ryzlala (Tulak Hord)
Fons shows up with the wrong details on the bounty, but the Wookies know the old Fons Borner
They call Fons out on his false identity, but he says he still wants to help if the bounty is not on the level
If Fons can bring back Shaairry from her hiding in the Shadowlands then they will give Fons a powerful droid they found on the Syndicate ship as payment for the deed
Fons finds the Syndicate goons who are Trandoshans and he wipes them out Shaairry is impressed and swears a life debt to Fons Borner
When they get back to the Wookie town, the Wookies are very unhappy about the life debt
They decide they will not give Fons his droid payment

However, the droid, HK-88 "Hue" (Han Zrkr) has reactivated and leaves of his own accord Hue would have been a great teammate because his chassis was designed to make it seem like Hue is organic (to dodge Gotta II's rules on bounty hunting)
Fons, Kurt, and Shaairry return to Taris to cancel the bounty on Shaairry
Pico agrees but also says that it is Syndicate business so Fons would have to clear it with them
Meanwhile, Mandy Fett brings in the bounty that Fons was supposed to know about Pico wants Mandy to swoop race because she was a champ, but she won't anymore due to the accident she had that left her with a cybernetic spine
Fons wants to see the spine... and Mandy shows him and her back has sexy tats
Mandy is still being bitchy to Fons, but she really likes Shaairry and they become friends
Mandy wants to deal with the bounty on Shaairry

Taris is having civil war problems because the Alderaanians haven't left yet to found Alderaan
Civil war breaks out and bounty hunters are kicked off the planet temporarily
Fons, Mandy, Kurt and Shaairry travel together and Pico tells them that if they want to find the person who put the bounty on Shaairry then they need to go to Korriban

On Korriban, DMX cantina scene. Sith Academy and tombs are being rebuilt
Only the cantina complex is up and running
Fons and Mandy walk in and it's the jump off
Everyone in the cantina attack Fons and Mandy
Pico set them up and wanted them killed because she wanted the Shaairry bounty collected for Gotta II
Fons crew return to Taris to kill Pico but she has fled
Fons crew ends up implicated in the Alderaan civil war on Taris Fons unleashes his force abilities for the first time – his main power is to negate force powers
An Alderaanian that is high up in the rebellion and will lead the exodus to Alderaan is force sensitive and hides it so that he comes off as messianic but he notes Fons's powers
That Alderaanian, Ale Sinta (Gaymz), will later become Darth Urion

Out of curiosity, the Fons crew travel to Alderaan to see the foundation of the planet
A Jedi Master, Hawning In'toh (ManAlan), was on the Alderaan colonized planet representing the primitive indigenous peoples

Master In'toh understood the history of the galaxy and that the Rakatan peoples had cross-pollinated their adaptive DNA into species around the galaxy and that what the Tarisian Alderaanians were doing was heinous

Master In'toh explained the galaxy to Fons and offered to train him in the Force

Fons appreciated the lessons but didn't want to train in the Force because it would mess up his ability to be a bounty hunter

Darth Rasp (Mar Vin) arrives on Alderaan and battle Master In'toh

Rasp is defeated and offers her service to In'toh but he has no interest

Fons says that Rasp can join their squad

Rasp invites the crew to her temple on a world in old Sith Empire space

The crew has a run-in with Balbara but they survive

A bounty hunter, Srzr (Al Boston) shows up at the Rasp planet with the intention of capturing Fons Bormer

There is a bounty on Fons put on by Ale Sinta for being associated with Master In'toh

They beat Srzr and he retreats

The Fons crew decide to go after Srzr

Srzr is on Tatooine with Azebo the Hutt (Mal Laird) and Mollusk Crumb (Mal Vin) and the assassins, Twin Eclipse (Howwy and Gavin)

The Fons crew raid Azebo's estate and slaughter his crew

They return to Alderaan and try to execute Ale Sinta, however, he uses his Dark Force powers to save himself and the Fons crew understands that he is a Sith Lord in disguise

The Fons crew retreats

Kurt decides to travel home and Fons doesn't want to join him but Darth Rasp joins

Fons, Mandy, and Shaairy return to Kashyyyk for some R&R

Kurt sends a message to the Fons crew that Dantooine is burning

Darth Gor (Brewster) is on Dantooine and laying waste to the planet

The Fons crew ask for Master In'toh's help but he refuses

The Fons crew arrives at Dantooine but Darth Gor stops as soon as they arrive

Darth Gor is in the kinrath cave and Fons goes in with Kurt

Kurt is knocked out

Darth Gor speaks with Fons and explains that the real mutual problem is Darth Urion (Ale Sinta)

Darth Gor boggs Fons down with zombie droids and then disappears

While on Dantooine, Furd gets drunk and violent again and Mandy Fett kills him

Mandy returns to Pico the Hutt with the intention of killing Pico if the Furd bounty won't be paid

Pico pays the bounty but Mandy asks about the Korriban cantina fight and realizes that Pico was responsible

Mandy agrees to swoop race for Pico

Fons and Shaairy return to Mandy

Mandy races and instead of winning she takes her swoop bike up into the stands and kills Pico in front of everyone

Tarisian spread the word that the Fons crew were the ones that escorted Ale Sinta away and they attack the Fons crew

The Fons crew have to escape but get stuck in the lower cities of Taris

Kurt and Darth Rasp arrive and bail them out

Switch to the Tee Bona events

Tee was left as an orphan at the cantina on Korriban, cantina owner kept her and used her as free labor

While the Sith academy was being rebuilt, Tee would sneak off and learn the dark side from students and in the temples, but she remained an outsider

A species show up on Korriban and they have a cult... they claim they are the original Sith from a planet called Roon

The cult captured Tee and sought to sacrifice her ritualistically

Qua arrived looking for Thul Husk and found Tee in danger

He killed the cult and saved Tee

Qua was engineered by the Rakata just after their Empire fell

Qua is a product of a multitude of species DNA being mixed, including DNA from Thul Husk

Wookiee genes are dominant, but Qua has coherent speech and verbiage

After the Rakata Empire fell, a tyrant named Shim'bal took over the Rakata homeworld. He sent out his tribes to capture all the Rakata hiding in the galaxy and they were brought back and eaten

One Rakata was brought back but evaded the cannibalism – Ohra

Ohra was a genius scientist and geneticist

He set up in a temple and used technology to protect himself in the temple

Eventually, Shim killed all his own people and only Shim and Ohra remained for the Rakata

Ohra used his own DNA to create a new Rakata peoples and he mixed his DNA with the DNA of Rakata heroes in the tombs in the temple

The young new Rakata left the temple to colonize the planet, but they had a run in with Shim

One of the young new Rakata was a natural leader and went after Shim and killed him

Ohra was worried that the leader was actually using DNA from a tyrant that had made himself a hero in the history

Ohra made Qua just in case

Qua was supposed to be the true leader of the new young Rakata however Qua had no interest and wanted to learn of his hereditary origins by traveling the galaxy

Qua must eat a special diet or he regresses into a beastly form where he lacks language

Qua arrived on Korriban looking for Thul Husk, but found Tee instead

In the cantina, they are rebuilding after Fons and Mandy wasted the place

A traveler arrives and knows about Thul Husk and tells Qua to go to the Mandalorian homeworld (but the traveler is Thul Husk in disguise)

Qua and Tee travel to the Mando homeworld and liberate a girls' prison

They have to escape and this is the start of events from the TORUS comic

Qua and Tee's ship is alerted to a minefield of recently destroyed military ships

They investigate the ship wreckage hoping for some salvage and ready to help those needing help

Only life sign on their scanners keeps popping up on different ships impossibly
On the next ship they investigate they are attacked by Darth Gor's zombie droids
They realize the ships are Syndicate death squad ships

They reach the hangar of the ship and need to get to the next ship in the scrapyard
They use swoop bikes in the hangar to get across the gap
In the next ship they have an encounter with Darth Gor
Darth Gor pulls his zombie droids apart to create shields and weapons for himself
Often Gor fights with a droid parts shield and then his violet lightsaber
Qua and Tee win the fight and race back to their own ship
The zombie droids are in hot pursuit

On their way back, they go through the medbay of the first ship they were in and there are Trandoshans that were being converted into cyborgs
Back on their ship they are attacked by a zombie basilisk war droid
Darth Gor had the basilisk droid to explode and destroy Qua and Tee's ship
However, HK-88 "Hue" is there and refers to Gor as "Master"
Hue disables the bomb and saves Tee and Qua. Hue joins them

Hue is a hunter-killer assassin droid and he is of unique design with synthetic flesh covered by Matrix armor
His head looks like a helmet and his body is android and appears humanoid Hue has a jet pack built into his armor. Kikens and Quarrens had commissioned the creation of Hue as a way to avoid Gotta II's new rules on droid being disallowed from bounty hunting
Hue wants to destroy Kikens and their Quarrens
Hue had been constructed by the engineer who had developed all the tech for the Hutt that had run Tronto (see Ivin Ra story during the rule of Gotta I)

Tee, Qua, and Hue are together and then they will join Fons, Mandy, and Shaairry
During the escape from Taris the Fons crew wrecked their ship and needed a new one Rumor had it that Corellia had a Syndicate ship there and Corellia didn't have the kind of galactic defenses at that time (before Ammunition) to be able to handle Fons's crew
They traveled to Corellia to steal the Syndicate ship
Tee's crew was also looking for a new ship and Hue knew of the Syndicate ship
The two trios ended up on Corellia

Some adventuring through Corellia as a teaser for the Ammunition stories
Then, they are in Sonata looking for the ship, but both crews run into each other and they both have a claim
They agree to leave together with the ship
There is minor resistance when they leave Corellia
They get to know each other... and Tee decides to call the ship Oxa Ghost so that she doesn't have to listen to Qua say it as an expletive anymore

They are cut off by Gotta II's Syndicate ships and Gotta II says that he will let them keep Oxra Ghost if they agree to take out a problem of his – an ambitious Mandalorian general that was rebuilding the Mando army and intended galactic conquest

Gotta II sent the Fons crew to assassinate Ganance Saxon (Jeff Brown aka Rapebug)

When the Fons crew arrived at an outer rim planet that the Mandos were attacking they discovered that Gan Saxon had allies in the Jedi and Sith who were trying to usurp Gotta II

A fragile alliance existed between Darth Noir (Gag Uglyface) and his apprentice Darth Tremor (The Hideous Twist), with Jedi Master Voya (Phyllis Diller), Master Vernorr (Ian Baker-Finch), Master Radook (Alan Brown), and Master Pfaz (Bill Clinton), and Pfaz apprentice Sybil Korr (Naga Sadow), with Facco the Hutt (FaceAss) and Teasing Crumb (Al Fender).

That group was supporting Gan Saxon in a bid to overthrow the Gotta II rule

The Fons crew noticed that they were outmatched at the moment and backed off but were now in a tight spot because they had no right to the Oxra Ghost spaceship

Darth Tremor and Sybil Korr had secretly started a relationship and became stowaways on the Oxra Ghost Fons and the crew accepted Darth Tremor and Sybil Korr joining them

Darth Tremor had been a regular young man before being trained as a sith and he wanted to go back to his original name, Rhob

The Fons crew left and figured out how they would deal with all the enemies

Rhob knew all about the Iridorian Darth Noir and Noir seemed very dangerous

STAR WARS – HUTT EMPIRE: OXRA GHOST GOTTA II

(see bottom of doc for cast of characters)

Rhub knew all about the Iridorian Darth Noir and Noir seemed very dangerous
Gotta II didn't lift a hand to stop the Array (Gan Saxon, Darth Noir, Masters Voya/Vernorr/Radook/Pfaz, Facco the Hutt/Teasing Crumb) from beginning their destabilization of the galaxy
Gotta II (Arick) intended to let the Array destabilize the galaxy so that he would look like a savior when he put the usurpers in check
To that end, Gotta II reached out to the Oxra Ghost crew and offered to put them in charge of the Syndicate
The Fons crew declined at first and Gotta II found a quartet that stepped in The Fons crew carried on with their mission against Ale Sinta and Master In'toh

The Fons crew returned to Alderaan and attempted to expose Ale Sinta as Darth Urion Ale Sinta maintained his messiah status with the Alderaan pilgrims Master In'toh led the indigenous against Sinta and they were massacred which the Fons crew started to believe was Master In'toh's nefarious intention
It seemed that In'toh and Sinta may have been working together
The Fons crew gave up on Alderaan and left the planet, but they were attacked by Darth Urion and Master In'toh and were forced to land on an inhospitable jungle moon

The Fons crew had to fight through beasts while trying to avoid attacks by In'toh
The crew made it to a temple on the moon which was the temple of Darth Urion
The Fons crew killed Darth Urion and when In'toh returned to Alderaan to convert the pilgrims to his leadership, the Fons crew killed In'toh as well

The Fons crew offered to help set up the Alderaanians but the zealots decided to martyr Darth Urion and Master In'toh

Meanwhile, Gotta II had commissioned four powerful characters to run his Syndicate and send them against the Array enough to sell the idea that he was trying to cope with the Array and stop them

Wookie warrior Marbacca (Ruth) and Trandoshan general Nossk (Hed) were brought in to run the Syndicate, and later were joined by the brothers Bron, Hal Bron (Norton) and Jon Bron (Vader) from Naboo
The Brons were tight with the Hutts despite not being big fans of Gotta II

The quartet set themselves to task on dealing with the Array

The Syndicate quartet took on the Array in several battles and missions, but they didn't kill any of the Array as per Gotta II's instructions

Eventually, the Fons crew had had enough of Gan Saxon and the Mandos conquering and raping Outer Rim worlds and they stepped in

They took on the Mando army and defeated it and then they killed Gan Saxon and put his head on a pike to mark the last territory that the Mandalorians would be allowed to take

Gotta II was livid and commanded his Syndicate quartet to take out the Fons crew

The Syndicate quartet showed up at the Outer Rim with their army and hunted down the Fons crew
Marbacca killed Darth Rasp and Kurt Frecker was about to get himself killed by Nossk when seeking revenge

Fons pulled Kurt away and the crew was split up as they escaped the Syndicate

The Brons went after Fons and Kurt while Marbacca and Nossk went after the rest of the Fons crew

In the end, Mandy Fett and Shaairry were able to make peace with Marbacca and Nossk

Marbacca and Nossk decided to join the Fons crew

The Brons caught up to Fons and Kurt and they battled, but the Brons backed off to focus on the Jedi Masters

The Brons went after the four Jedi Masters using assassin tactics

Master Voya was drowned on Coruscant

Master Vernorr died being thrown out of a spaceship when the Brons thought they were escaping him after he went after them for the Voya kill

Master Radook went into hiding but the Brons found the Jedi Master in Darth Urion's temple where she thought that Urion's recent death would mask her presence (The Brons had Hutt Force connection)

Master Pfaz went after Gotta II but the Brons showed up in time to save Gotta II and they pieced up Pfaz

Pfaz took his 16 pieces and used the Force to put himself back together

Darth Gor showed up and finished Pfaz and then ducked out quick

The Brons were rewarded for protecting Gotta II and Gotta II decided to change his original plan

He sent the Brons after Facco the Hutt

When the Brons arrived to deal with Facco the Hutt and Teasing Crumb, The Fons crew (minus Fons and Kurt) were already there

They killed all of the Hutt's crew and then teamed up

They were looking for Fons and Kurt

Kurt had broken away from Fons and followed the call from Balbara

Kurt traveled deep into the old Sith Empire and found Balbara

Balbara explained to Kurt that Darth Rasp's death was a setup and that Fons and his crew were always arrayed against Kurt and Rasp

Kurt believed Balbara and vowed to kill Fons

Fons showed up to get Kurt back but Kurt turned against Fons and incapacitated him

The Fons crew showed up at Balbara's temple and fought Balbara's Sith marauders

Mandy Fett faced off against Kurt and killed him

Fons healed up and the Fons crew left Old Sith Empire space

They stopped off on Korriban to recover, but they were confronted by Darth Noir

Darth Noir systematically killed all of the Fons crew

Fons died and met Thul Husk in the Force and Thul said that Fons didn't have to accept death nor for his crew

Fons resurrected and used his Force power to bring back all his crew (arguably Thul performed the task)

Tee Bona cut off Darth Noir's arms and the Rhob used a new force ability to twist and "juice" Darth Noir into a puddle

The war was over and the Fons crew was able to recover and then continue with their humble bounty hunting careers

Darth Gor was offered control of the Syndicate for Gotta II

Darth Gor killed all the Syndicate personnel and destroyed all the ships and arsenal

Gotta II was left defenseless

Gotta II continued to rule, but he had no army to back him up

The Brons put a Naboo Senator into the top position in the Republic (Chancellor) and although Gotta II was officially the Emperor, the galaxy was run by the Naboo senator

The Naboo Senator elected Gotta III (Han Zrkr) to co-rule with Gotta II when he was getting to the end of his life

The Brons watched over the Republic

Gotta II eventually passed away and Gotta III took over

Thul Husk remained a mysterious figure and Qua didn't connect up with him until much later

Balbara maintained her interest in machinations from the shadows

Darth Gor continued to roam the galaxy doing whatever he felt like

HEROES

Thul Husk as Fons Bormer
Kaxa Rol as Mandy Fett
Tee Bona as Tee Bona
Sobek Ra as Qua
Han Zrkr as HK-88 "Hue"
Tulak Hord as Shaairry Ryzlala
Naga Sadow as Sybil Korr
The Hideous Twist as Darth Tremor (Rhob)
Ruth as Marbacca
Hed as Nossk
Norton as Hal Bron
Wal Vader as Jon Bron

JEDI ORDER

ManAlan as Master Hawning In'toh – launched into outer space
Phyllis Diller as Master Voya – drowned
Ian Baker-Finch as Master Vernorr – thrown out of ship
Alan Brown as Master Radook – beaten to death
Bill Clinton as Master Pfaz – pieced up

SITH EMPIRE

Gaymz as Ale Sinta (Darth Urion) – used his powers against himself (Fons ability)
Mar Vin as Darth Rasp – ripped in half Vert Schmear as Balbara
Brewster as Darth Gor
Gag Uglyface as Darth Noir – quartered and twist n' juice

MANDALORIANS

Jeff Brown as Ganance Saxon – decapitated

BOUNTY HUNTERS

Alan Baker as Kurt Frecker – snapped neck

HUTTS

Arick as Gotta II – natural causes (actually he poison suicided)
FaceAss as Facco the Hutt – crushed under her throne
Al Fender as Teasing Crumb – stuffed inside Facco and then crushed with her

STAR WARS – HUTT EMPIRE: AMMUNITION CORELLIA

(see bottom of doc for cast of characters)

Beretta Vao and Colt-45 (Oil Can Boyd) meet on their homeworld of Corellia

Corellia is an industrial planet (if Earth had gone all communist)

On Corellia the worker's unions have all the power, but they are corrupt, and the planet stays poor

Corellia has a humanoid ape-based indigenous species, but also lots of migrant workers

Corellia has three major continents – Opus, Chorus, and Fugue

Corellia has been part of the Galactic community for millennia but its influence waned and its golden years are in the past

Beretta (twilek) and Colt (droid) had homes on the Opus continent and they lived in the two major metropolis on the east coast of Opus – Blue Hill City and Dewval respectively (like NYC and Chicago)

Opus pioneered capitalism on Corellia, but eventually the continent fell to mafia rule and Opus ended up more rundown than the other two continents

Cities of Opus have Art Deco (Gotham city) style and the culture reflects on Prohibition era.

Beretta rose to power as a gang leader for her borough in Blue Hill while Colt did the same in Dewval

They had powerful lieutenants (Ruth, Hed, Alan)

The city gangs became more influential continent-wide

Beretta and Colt joined forces and formed Ammunition. Beretta was the first leader of Ammunition

Ammunition put down competition through winning a variety of turf wars

Ammunition put down Dewval crimelord Bulwark (Bullwinkle)

Ammunition gained control of the Cantina Complex, including gambling houses, brothels, and speakeasys

Bulwark escaped but could only survive by staying in his mobile tank base

Bulwark ordered the assassination of Beretta

Assassins showed up in Blue Hill intending to take Beretta's family hostage

Ammunition leaders took out the assassins

Ammunition hit squads retaliated by targeting the Blue Hill HQ of the Blue Hill's crimelord, AB-06 "Abiosix" (Al Bundy), right-hand Dunbar Mero (Dick Butkus)

It was Dunbar Mero who had allowed the assassins into Blue Hill and helped them find Beretta's family

Beretta and Ammunition captured Dunbar Mero and threw him into a machine for manufacturing sausage

Ammunition claimed Dunbar Mero's royal estate as their new HQ

Rival gangs were creeping up in Dewval and the turf wars raged on (spurred by Bulwark)

Ammunition made further attempts to capture Bulwark but failed

Instead, Ammunition went after Bulwark's right-hand, Girk Gabbon (Gif Gible) and raided her Cantina Complex in Dewval

Girk escaped and fled to a massive luxury estate in the southern part of the continent

Ammunition broke through Bulwark's mobile fortress defenses and Bulwark fled the continent

Ammunition went after Girk at the southern estate and she committed suicide instead of being captured

Abiosix and Bulwark teamed up and sent more assassins after Beretta

Abiosix raided Dewval and the Girk's Cantina Complex which was controlled by Ammunition

Ammunition was more interested in finishing off Bulwark and they raided a mercenary base on an island off the coast of Opus to gain information about Bulwark's whereabouts

Bulwark was in an island hideout close to the mercenary base island

Ammunition hit squads arrived too late and Bulwark escaped

Girk's royal guard at the southern estate complex had been imprisoned but they attempted an escape but were slaughtered

Abiosix took back Blue Hill

Ammunition regrouped and then raided Blue Hill and defeated Abiosix

Abiosix was caged and Ammunition troops were blindfolded and took pot shots until Abiosix was terminated

Ammunition now controlled Opus and the celebration involved parading the Bulwark mobile fortress base through Blue Hill and Dewval

Bulwark escaped to the southern part of the continent in remote jungles, but Ammunition hit squads found him. He was drawn and quartered by K9 droids

Beretta as twilek warrior with force powers

Colt-45 as assassin droid

Ruth as Daisy Fett as gunslinger assassin (Ivory)

Alan as Odo as warrior with hide (Walrus)

Hed as Octavia as Achewtan wizard

Ammunition turned their attention to the second continent of Corellia – Chorus

Chorus was ruled by three queens

Ammunition raided with the intention of capturing the crown princesses

Queen Ferga (Fatimo) put up too much resistance and was killed at her canal palace

Princess Nulba (Navajo Potato) was captured

The second queendom was raided and Queen Nagma (Malmud) was killed at her palace bunker

Princess Charock (Burkinstock) was captured

The third queendom was raided and Queen Wyrta (Schmearwig) escaped using her daughter as bait on the palatial lava yacht

Princess Montaq (Monty Burns) was captured on the yacht

The three princesses were "re-educated" and became loyal to Ammunition

The princesses became generals in the Ammunition Syndicate

Former Royal guard captains, Lee Bokroy (Leroy Brown) and Phee Arz (Arphee Breymer) raided the southern estate on Opus which was Princess Charock's base

They tried to free Charock and she agreed to leave with them, but Charock was recaptured and Bokroy and Arz fled

Charock was moved to Blue Hill but tried to escape again. She was disciplined in a force cage

Nulba and Montaq were more cooperative

Charock became cooperative and was allowed to return to the southern estate

Nulba had a base in Dewval and Montaq had a base in Blue Hill

Ammunition focused on having the three princesses as the figureheads for Opus

Montaq became governor for Opus, Nulba was mayor of Dewval, but Charock was not promoted, however she was moved up to Blue Hill

The people of Opus accepted the princesses as figureheads because it brought greater sophistication and distinction to the continent

The princesses were kept away from Chorus to avoid stirring up revolt

Beretta and Colt worked at controlling Chorus

Daisy Fett (Ruth) steward for Nulba

Odobo (Alan) steward for Montaq

Octavia (Hed) steward for Charock

There were moments of unrest in Opus while the princesses were running the continent

Montaq successfully suppressed a rebellion by a workers union. The leaders fled but were slaughtered in the southern jungles

Nulba shut down a splinter faction of the incorporated Abiosix gangs that had a massive coup against Ammunition

The leaders of the workers union rebellion had been stirred up by a pair of provocateurs, Malstar (Malhouse) and Klim Konn (Bimbo Bones)

Malstar and Klim Konn were hunted down and executed

Charock attempted another escape when visiting the southern estate. When she was recaptured she attempted to assassinate Nulba for not supporting the escape plans

Nulba tricked Charock by pretending she herself had escaped Opus. When Charock was lured to Nulba's trap, Nulba punished Charock

Praetorians Bokroy and Arz (Leroy and Arphee) saved Charock and successfully smuggled her to the third continent, Fugue, in the town of Pastorale

Ammunition used Charok's escape as a justification for a new campaign to rule Fugue

Jyl Wyly (Kaxa) was a native of Fugue and she defected to join Ammunition

Jyl was powerful in the Force and had been a promising young talent in the ruling caste of Fugue

Fugue had once had several kingdoms (like Chorus), however one kingdom had ambition and started a civil war on the continent eventually prevailing and forming a ruling totalitarian state known as the "Regime"

The galactic spaceport for Corellia was on the continent of Fugue in the city of Sonata

Regime was able to support their hegemonic control through levying tariffs across the planet (Opus, Chorus, and sovereign islands)

Jyl helped coordinate the invasion of Fugue by Ammunition

Half of the Ammunition leaders landed in Fugue as a scouting party, but they were stationed in separate cities across the continent

Western capital of the continent was a large coastal city named Aria (big skyline) as many people in Aria as the rest of the continent combined. Biggest city in Corellia

Jyl and Nulba reunited in Aria during a battle with the Regime's secret police inspectors (on a yacht)

Jyl and Nulba met up with Beretta

Beretta had Svorkbeard (Sobek) with her who she had met in Aria. Svorkbeard was a native of Fugue and a powerful warrior and influential leader

Svorkbeard joined Ammunition

Queen Ferga had had a consort from Fugue which helped made Ferga's kingdom and the Regime tight

The consort was Prince Den Vah (Mungo Brown) who was once from Chorus

Den Vah was one of the key figures in founding the Regime

Ammunition's invasion of Fugue was initially executed through covert operation and political subterfuge. The Regime was unaware that Jyl had defected and she used her connections and rank in the Regime to sow disorder.

Ammunition leaders in Aria were disguised as Regime officers.

A crime syndicate was allowed by the Regime to run vice in Aria and Hardicnut (Norton) was a lieutenant in that crime syndicate.

The Aria crime syndicate was focused on "sports entertainment" with an array of deadly gladiator matches and sharpshooter dueling.

The Aria mafia boss was Ulkaa the Hutt (Fred Brown) and he owed allegiance to the Regime.

Hardicnut was a lieutenant, but there were other lieutenants – Zin Blof (Blofeld), Ko Somme (Tomboy), Dav Solus (Yida).

Hardicnut turned against Ulkaa the Hutt and helped Ammunition wipe out the crime syndicate, killing Ulkaa and the lieutenants.

Dav Solus escaped by faking his own death.

A rival gang leader, Brill Syr (Bill Shatner) exploited the chaos and attempted to take over himself.

Ammunition leaders took him to the roof of the tallest building and threw him off.

The Brill Syr gang was then led by Montaq who had already infiltrated that gang before things kicked off with Ulkaa, and who had been in Aria the whole time but was laying low and didn't meet up with the others in Ammunition.

The Brill Syr gang were former disillusioned Regime and Ulkaa rejects therefore they became very loyal to Montaq.

After the assassination of Ulkaa and destabilization of Aria, the Regime understood that Ammunition had infiltrated.

The Regime sent secret police inspectors... and the inspectors called for indiscriminate bombing of gang areas of Aria to ensure the death of Ammunition leaders.

Beretta and the others escaped Aria and found refuge in a Western province pastoral town (Pastorale) that was secretly sympathetic to Regime dissidents.

Ammunition was unaware, but Montaq had turned traitor and while working with Brill Syr, had made contact with the Regime.

Ammunition stayed in Pastorale and planned the next stage of their invasion.

Ironically, it was Pastorale where Bokroy and Arz had hidden Charock.

Charock had acquired allies among the residents of Pastorale.

Beretta fought Charock and left her bleeding to death on the plains. Beasts devoured her.

The Regime had a spy in Pastorale, Alsha Pidgatte (Alan Shatner) who had befriended Charock.

Alsha escaped Ammunition and reported to the Regime thus putting Montaq in the clear.

The Regime learned that Ammunition had not planned an armed invasion but rather wanted to destabilize the continent through political assassinations.

The Regime responded by hiring the best bounty hunters in the galaxy. They arrived at the spaceport in Fugue.

The Regime had a massive bounty on Beretta and the other leaders of Ammunition.

Mandalorian Dallin Abra (Mangina) brought a death squad to Pastorale.

Abra had some success and all of the Ammunition grunts and allies were killed. Only top brass escaped
Jyl and Beretta were hurt by Abra but Nulba came to the rescue and managed to kill Abra
The death squad retreated with their leader dead
Ammunition limped off

Svorkbeard took the survivors to his hometown of Suite (forest city) in the Western province (northern)
Suite was closer to the Regime capital, Bolero, and they had a presence in Suite
The Regime's governor in Suite was Mon Rakamo (Hermono Raeth) was aware that Svorkbeard had brought the Ammunition leaders to Suite and he wanted to collect the bounty Dav Solus (Yida) also wanted to collect the bounty Mon Rakamo was playing it cool, but Dav Solus charged into Suite and attacked. Ammunition was alerted to the fact that it was known they were in Suite Ammunition took out Dav Solus and then Mon Rakamo through the help of Sulk Esher (Sarah Chomsky)
the leader of an anti-Regime group based in Suite (indigenous to the forest)
Sulk Esher agreed to fight alongside Ammunition if they would liberate Suite after taking over Fugue

The Regime cracked down on the invasion attempt by Ammunition
Fugue shut down its border including the galactic spaceport in Sonata
Sulk Esher didn't want to take on the Regime without more support from Ammunition Ammunition traveled to the southern province and its capital, Canon, which was the poorest large city on Fugue and was more like Blue Hill and Dewval Ammunition offered help to the Canon mafia boss, Boa Huerta (ManLee) and would assassinate some ambitious lieutenants and then Huerta would lend military support The ambitious lieutenants caught wind of Huerta's duplicity and they fled. Beretta and the Ammunition leaders had to do covert assassination ops in Pastorale, Suite, and the eastern province capital, Sonata Huerta was being duplicitous and had no intention of lending support, but wanted her usurpers lieutenants taken out
Huerta would either eliminate her usurpers or be able to curry favor with the Regime, if Ammunition were to fail
Ammunition completed the assassinations and returned to Canon

Huerta double-crossed Ammunition, but Ammunition saw it coming. They quickly assassinated her and her right-hand, which caused her army to stand down Colt-45 who had landed in Canon when Ammunition invaded Fugue became the leader of the Canon army and the Huerta Mafia Ammunition now had an army with boots on the ground in Fugue. Aria was in chaos and Canon was controlled
Queen Wyrta (Schmearwig) who had escaped the invasion of Chorus turned up in Canon
Wyrta had a consort, Drew Burr (Aron Bur) who had power in the Regime in the southern province
Drew Burr was originally from Opus and poor but worked his way up in Chorus as a dandy. He escaped Chorus with many other nobility when Ammunition invaded Montaq and Burr had known each other in Chorus and met in Canon without Ammunition knowing that Wyrta was in the southern province

Montaq was jealous that her mother was now with her ex Burr, so she screwed over her mother and had Burr help rob Wyrta and then Burr was given sanctuary in Chorus by Ammunition

While in Canon some of the Army defected and formed a gang
Nulba wiped out the gang in the mobile fortress base (similar to Bulwark)
Dav Solus had trained an apprentice who was pledged to kill Hardicnut
Hardicnut faced the apprentice, Horgus the Gamorrean (The Dumpling) in the deserts of the south and killed him Svorkbeard and Sulk Esher raided a cantina complex run by Horgus that was in the remote desert of the south of Fugue (south of Canon)
Svorkbeard put Schol Jin (Gif Grifford of Prauns in Mark Spoons Titan form brought to witness real Turducken) in charge of the cantina
Canon was now controlled completely and the cantina complex was a landing site for an Ammunition invasion force from Opus and Chorus

The last step for Ammunition's conquest of Corellia involved dismantling the Regime and executing its leaders
The Regime stronghold in Fugue was in the port city eastern capital, Sonata and the mountainous northern capital, Bolero Ammunition had success with their covert ops, political subterfuge and assassination missions
The amassed army in Canon was to move outside Aria as a feint while Ammunition leaders raided Sonata and Bolero covertly with a focus on destroying the academies and executing all the young officers in the Regime (hit to morale and wiping out next gen of Regime)
Ammunition leaders went to Sonata and posed as recruits for the academy
Even Beretta could blend in because Sonata was a spaceport and was half alien species
Additionally, the aliens were not fans of the Regime and many supported a change for Corellia
The head of the academy in Sonata was Master Zhin Vange (Dick van Dyke)
Ammunition assassinated Vange by drowning

The greatest aid to Ammunition was that the Regime privileged propaganda and total control of media and they had suppressed news of Ammunition's invasion
Ammunition leaders were able to blend in as aliens or Chorus refugees because the Regime didn't want citizens of Fugue know that Ammunition was making incursions
In Sonata, the Regime fell quietly and alien ambassadors stepped in to take over the city and reopen the galactic spaceport.
The Regime's leaders retreated to Bolero to plan their retaliation
Ammunition leaders in Sonata reconvened with the Ammunition army that had been sieging Aria
They moved on Bolero in the north
There was a battle outside Bolero with the Regime's top general, Arlo Putch (Pudlee)
Ammunition prevailed and dehydrated General Putch to death
Ammunition army sieged Bolero and Ammunition leaders infiltrated covertly Ammunition leaders raided the Bolero academy and executed the heads of the academy, Kand Brun (The Kurdle) and Od Apps (Pud Pap)
Finally, Beretta caught up with the spy Alsha who was tied down and trampled to death

While raiding Bolero, Montaq accidentally-on-purpose was captured
The leader of the Regime was Thak Volt (Nib Nigglet, formerly The Venetian Blind) and he was strong in the force and fancied himself as Darth Volt
Montaq wanted to ally with Darth Volt
Darth Volt had two Sith apprentices, Jaqo Tun and Daun Vilonos (Yakitori and Cruella de Vil) who escaped and who later became the leaders of the new fascist organization that would replace the Regime, know as the Reich
Darth Volt fled Bolero with Montaq and the Praetorian Guard and holed-up in an island fortress Ammunition raided the island fortress which had savage indigenous warriors that Sulk was able to negotiate with Jyl Wylly killed Darth Volt in his throne room, and Beretta recaptured Montaq and executed her by decapitation

The Regime was dismantled and Volt was dead
Ammunition controlled Corellia
Ammunition set up a sister organization – Artillery
Ammunition members that weren't favored by the leaders were sent to Artillery
Artillery began by running Dewval on Opus Ammunition focused on Blue Hill
On Chorus, Ammunition forbade monarchy, but they were agreeable to a religious order – the Papacy Papacy preached peace and cooperation, Corellia as a chosen race to lead the galactic community
Fugue was allowed to form as sovereign city-states and they had alien governors running them with a HQ in Sonata
Corellia became much wealthier and more influential in the galactic community
Ammunition became a galactic organization and formed as a private military outfit that also dealt in vice as well as legitimate enterprises

The remnants of the Regime reformed as The Reich and were led by Jaqo Tun and Daun Vilonos
Queen Wyrta revealed she was a powerful Force-wielder and Dark Lord
Wyrta was actually the true leader of the Reich and had been instructing Jaqo and Daun how to organize those who hated Ammunition
The Reich employed the tried-and-true tactics of Ammunition against them – striking from the shadows Wyrta attacked Jyl Wylly and the injury cause a memory wipe for Jyl. Colt-45 was left out of commission
Jyl was attacked with Colt-45 while they were away from Corellia on Ammunition galactic business
Jyl was abducted and made to believe she was attacked by Ammunition and was in fact a member of the Reich
The Reich had many malcontents from the Regime, the Papacy, Artillery, and Ammunition and a special crew surrounded Jyl and pledged allegiance to her claiming they had defected in order to support her and be led by her
Jyl was to bring “justice” for Corellia by taking out Ammunition
Wyrta intended to have the Reich control all of Corellia
Ammunition needed Jyl back but as a galactic outfit, they were most interested in novel conquest and the thrill of battle

Jyl only retained memories of her childhood on Fugue and her early teen years of training as a junior officer in the Regime academies in Sonata and Bolero

Wyrta insidiously constructed a phony history for Jyl that lied about Jyl being attacked by Ammunition and the Papacy

Jyl believed the Wyrta lies at first because there was evidence of Jyl having been attacked by Ammunition – but it was in fact ambitious lieutenants in Artillery

Artillery bounty hunter lieutenants, Paad Haas and Ohm T'rad (Mudhaus and Mudtarde) had attacked Jyl just before Wyrta memory wiped her

Jaço Tun and Daun Vilonos were presented to Jyl as enemies who were running the Reich but believed that Jyl was a traitor working secretly for Ammunition

Wyrta was with Jyl feeding her the lies while pretending to be an ally that could help train Jyl and reconnect her to the Force after her injury and memory wiping

Wyrta became Jyl's closest ally along with the special crew around her of malcontents that defected to pledge themselves to Jyl

From Jyl's perspective, she was attacked by Ammunition/Papacy because she was considered Reich, but hunted by Reich because she is considered Ammunition

Wyrta pushed Jyl to focus on taking out Papacy leaders, and then have the special crew replace Papacy leaders and inspire the people of Corellia to follow Jyl's way

Jyl was being attacked by the Reich as per Wyrta's command, but Jyl misunderstood contact with Ammunition as hostile when in fact it was rescue attempts

Wyrta had assembled the special crew for Jyl many years earlier and planted them in Ammunition, Artillery, Papacy and Reich

These phony defectors confirmed Wyrta's lies in order to persuade Jyl

Haas and T'rad had been made by Wyrta to leave behind doctored video that suggested Ammunition had a bounty on Jyl

Colt-45's droid assassins were sent to try and rescue Jyl because Wyrta's force powers were too much for minds

The Haas and T'rad deception had Jyl distrusting droids which those Artillery had used when they attacked Jyl. Jyl erroneously believed that her memories had been wiped by malicious droids

The first of the special crew to join Jyl was Surd Dalba (Super Dave) who claimed he had been sent with Haas and T'rad but had tried to stop them and they tried to kill him and locked him up

Jyl had been implanted with fake memories from her youth whereby she thought she was familiar with the special crew members

Wyrta claimed that she was with Jyl because she had shown up to save Jyl from the Reich hunters and the Papacy who tried to kidnap her... the Artillery Haas and T'rad attack was unexpected and that's why Wyrta was thrown off

Wyrta suggested that she, Jyl and Surd travel to the northeast city of Waltz in Fugue

Waltz had been ravaged by the war between Ammunition and the Regime

Alien governors were working to restore the town

The Reich also had a presence in Waltz

Artillery captains had been in Waltz keeping a lid on the Reich and were working with the alien governors

Wyrta had control over the head alien governor who pleaded with Jyl to kill the Artillery captains
Jyl executed the captains

Before leaving Waltz, Wyrta organized a meeting with a Papacy leader, Mer Batty (Faggy bd) at her private mountain temple

Mer Batty was secretly working with Wyrta but was trying to break free from the mental hold

During the trip from Waltz to Mer Batty's temple, the Reich attacked Jyl and her crew. She was aided by another of the special crew plants, Bail Dofra (Pinche Loafer)

Bail Dofra claimed that he had been trying to help the alien governors of Waltz but had become disillusioned with the Papacy and the Regime/Reich

Bail Dofra joined the crew and they arrived at Mer Batty's temple

At the temple, Batty (following Wyrta orders) presented the Papacy as corrupt and Batty was irrationally hostile to Jyl

The next stop for the crew was the ruins of Bolero, which was neglected by the alien ambassadors in their rebuilding project because they feared as soon as they rebuilt it then the Reich would swoop in and claim it as their city

The Reich were lurking in the Bolero region

There was a non-Reich community in Bolero that was run by Den Vah and Drew Burr, who wanted to restore the Regime and who rejected the Reich

Reich and the Regime enthusiasts had a turf war in Bolero

Jyl met with Den Vah and Drew Burr but killed them when they tried to explain that Wyrta was manipulating her

Jaquo Tun showed up and Wyrta suggested retreating (worried Jaquo Tun would sell her out and reveal the manipulation as well)

Wyrta met with another Papacy leader, Raba Berg (RuPaul Peck) without Jyl present while they were all in Bolero

Wyrta murdered Raba Berg by stopping his heart

Jyl found the Raba Berg corpse and believed that Jaquo Tun was responsible

The crew planned to take the Raba Berg's corpse to Pastorale which was a stronghold for Papacy on Fugue
Wyrta suggested to Jyl that offering a proper burial for Raba Berg would be a good negotiation technique with the Papacy and let the crew get closer to the Papacy leaders so they could be killed

There was a Bolero stowaway with the special crew – Mandalorian Drav Abra (Rita Davita) was an apprentice of Daun Vilonos who defected to join Jyl's crew

The Raba Berg corpse would not have made it out of Bolero successfully without Drav Abra's help

The crew arrived in Pastorale

Pastorale didn't seem like a Papacy stronghold and instead was full of bounty hunters who pilgrimaged there to celebrate the near-victory of Dallin Abra against Beretta and Jyl

Jyl's crew were treated as bounty hunters by the locals of Pastorale and therefore they were despised

Some of the bounty hunters in Pastorale were ex-Artillery and they recognized Jyl

One bounty hunter, Difford Munt (Degeneres Mud) attempted to pretend that he was working for Ammunition and wanted to rescue Jyl, but in fact he wanted to win a private bounty bet with another bounty hunter who wanted Jyl and Beretta's heads

Jyl killed Difford Munt and then took out a lot of other bounty hunters who found out about the private bounty and tried to attack Jyl

Pastoral city officials did seem agreeable to Papacy and granted Jyl's crew access to a temple that had been vacated when the bounty hunters showed up

Jyl found forged documents by Wyrta in that temple which made Papacy leaders look corrupt

Jyl was now convinced of Wyrta's story and agreed that the Pope, Vert Muth (MudLee) had to be stopped

Jyl didn't realize that Vert Muth was on his way to Pastorage to meet with the mayor, Dregana Vin (Mudvin)

The Mayor's protégé, G'rose Jishak (Grimbo Jones) was another plant of Wyrta who would join Jyl's crew

Meanwhile, Vert Muth's droid bodyguard was corrupted by Surd Dalba (Super Dave)

The plan was to convince the bounty hunters to attack city hall to take over Pastorage and that Jyl's crew would use the ensuing chaos to attack Vert Muth

Bounty hunter, Ownbar Illery (Dunbar Brown) led the charge on city hall and local militia in Pastorage

Dregana Vin escaped but Pope Vert Muth was murdered when Jyl used force powers to pull his organs out of his orifices

Wyrta suggested to Jyl and her crew that they needed to continue traveling and wiping out all the surviving Papacy leaders that would try to make themselves the new pope

When news of Vert Muth's death reached Chorus, the other Papacy leaders fled the continent

Between Opus and Chorus was the sovereign island state of Albion

It's glory days were long ago and it had been subjected to the hegemony of Blue Hill as well as Queen Ferga's kingdom

Albion and its capital, Plymouth, were hoping to restore a golden age through training as galactic diplomats. The goal was to switch the galactic spaceport from Sonata to Albion

Wyrta also had plans for Albion and wanted it as the capital for her once she ruled Corellia

Hardicnut was running merc island and they had outposts in Albion... Wyrta was not aware of this arrangement

When Jyl's crew traveled to Albion to hunt for Papacy leaders, Hardicnut moved in to rescue her. Jyl viewed it as an attack, but they were stuck in an Albion merc outpost and relied on their help

Hardicnut showed up at the outpost and met with Jyl

Jyl and Hardicnut had an instant connection and Wyrta was afraid to speak against Hardicnut

Jyl couldn't remember Hardicnut but he convinced her to let him join the crew

Hardicnut offered his merc island army in support of taking down the Papacy

In a visit to Plymouth, just Wyrta, Hardicnut and Jyl traveled from the crew

In Plymouth, Wyrta introduced potential allies from the Albion army and Senate – General Vitolix and Senator Teronix (Phil Mud and Bill Mud)

Teronix and Vitolix were happy to help take out the Papacy if Jyl's crew would help install them at the top of Albion government

While in Plymouth, the trio sought out the cardinal who was next in line to be Pope

Force sensitive Cardinal Atrix (Al Harris) was a native of Albion and seeking protection from the figurehead Queen Yamona (Mud Laird)

Jyl needed access to Atrix and she helped Vitolix and Teronix by killing some powerful police captains and rescuing a spy in Plymouth

Then, civil war broke out in Plymouth and across Albion between Vitolix/Teronix forces versus Atrix/Yamona forces

Atrix had bounty hunter allies from Pastorage show up to protect him while the mercs at the outposts in Albion moved on Plymouth to support Jyl and Hardicnut who were supporting Vitolix/Teronix

Ownbar Illery showed up from Pastorage to support Atrix but was killed by Wyrta

Atrix escaped to Yamona's palace

Vitolix and Teronix encouraged Hardicnut and Jyl to withdraw because it would be viewed as foreign interference by Albion citizens

The trio left Plymouth and the mercs cleared the outposts in Albion and headed back to merc island

Back on Merc Island, Hardicnut suggested that Jyl travel to Opus to sort out problems with Ammunition and Artillery suggesting that the hatchet could be buried so that there would be focus on Papacy and the Reich

Wyrta adamantly rejected the notion

Jyl wanted to meet Beretta

Wyrta tried to get Surd Dalba and Bail Dofra to come on stronger and seduce Jyl and convince her to see Ammunition as the worst enemy of all because they were galactic and had been the ones to destabilize Corellia in the first place... and the ones that erased Jyl's memory with the droids

The work the crew did led Jyl to a compromise that she would test the waters in Dewval before going to meet Beretta in Blue Hill

Jyl and the crew traveled to Dewval which was the Artillery stronghold

Beretta heard from Hardicnut and traveled to Dewval to meet with Jyl there

Nulba and Svorkbeard were also in Dewval and met with Jyl

Jyl connected with Svorkbeard similarly to Hardicnut, but she distrusted Nulba

Svorkbeard explained to Jyl that Artillery had been created in anticipation of bastards and that Artillery harboured traitors loyal to the Reich

Svorkbeard identified the head of Artillery, RT-62 "Artie" (Bill Harris) as a Reich spy

Jyl was starting to understand that she was being deceived and suspected Wyrta

Jyl traveled to space and returned to the space station where she had been attacked and lost her memory
The out of commission Colt-45 was there as scrap

Jyl grabbed Colt-45 and brought him back to Opus where Surd offered to repair the droid, but Jyl declined
Beretta agreed to fix Colt-45 for Jyl

Wyrta gave up on her main plan of using Jyl and decided to recruit Nulba and a Papacy leader and former warrior, Dez-tel-Uhl (Peter Turducken) as assassins

Colt-45 was repaired and explained to Jyl what had happened

Jyl's phony crew tried to lie to her and claim that Beretta had rigged the droid to lie

Colt-45 explained to Jyl that she should pretend to believe the phony crew so that they wouldn't escape and the Reich could be flushed out and destroyed

Jyl agreed with the plan

Before being able to focus on the Reich all surviving enemies sent bounty hunter attacks at Jyl
Jyl survived the attacks and teamed up with Ammunition leaders while keeping her phony crew at arm's length

Jyl and Ammunition leaders took out the remaining enemies while Wyrta stood by Dez-tel-Uhl was cut in half with Jyl's lightsaber when Jyl and Ammunition leaders raided his underground hideout in Dewval
RT-62 and Wyrta backed off temporarily and set up Plan B

Reich forces were sent to Merc Island as a distraction and also as revenge against Hardicnut's interference
Colt-45 stayed in Opus to lure RT-62 away from the action

Jyl's phony crew stayed focused on taking out the Papacy with the intention of replacing its leaders

Jyl teamed up one last time with Wyrta and Nulba to aid Vitolix and Teronix in Plymouth

Jyl faced Atrix and defeated him in lightsaber combat

Queen Yamona laid a beating to Nulba and Wyrta

Jyl had to save Nulba and Wyrta with a mind trick on Yamona and then killing her from behind

The civil war in Albion was over

Jyl was happy to let Yamona lay a beating on Nulba and Wyrta because Jyl knew she would face the pair soon

Hardicnut would team up with Vitolix and Teronix temporarily and help shift power from the Papacy to Albion galactic diplomats

Eventually, Plymouth became the capital of Corellia

RT-62 was exposed as a traitor and Artillery was officially disbanded

Octavia, Daisy Fett and Odobo dealt with all the Artillery that tried to retaliate

Order was restored on Opus and Chorus

Ammunition only had to restore order on Fugue by destroying the Reich

Beretta meditated with Jyl and restored her memories through their previous Force Bond

Wyrta returned to Bolero and prepared for Jyl

Jyl traveled to Fugue and traveled from Pastorale to Waltz where she confronted Mer Batty about her alliance with Wyrta

Mer Batty refused to answer questions straight so Jyl fought her and killed her with a lightsaber through the forehead

Daun Vilonos tried to escape Corellia from Sonata, but Jyl and Hardicnut caught up to him and melted his face until death

Jyl marched on Bolero to confront Wyrta and ran into her guard Jaqo Tun

Jyl cut down the Reich troops with ease and when Nulba went to make her move against Jyl, Svorkbeard showed up and murdered Nulba by choking the life out of her

Colt-45 stomped Jaqo to death and Jyl moved onto Wyrta's throne room

Wyrta received lashings and begged for forgiveness. Jyl decapitated her. It was over.

N.B. There were 13 survivors once Wyrta was dead and Corellia was under full control of Ammunition

STAR WARS – HUTT EMPIRE: AMMUNITION GALACTIC

(see bottom of doc for cast of characters)

After Wyrta had been killed, Ammunition consolidated their power on Corellia but it didn't last Former Mayor of Pastorage, Dregana Vin (MudVin) reached out to a galactic ally, who put her in touch with Minnow the Hutt (Phil Baker)

The phony crew for Jyl tried to rebuild the Reich and Minnow stepped in to be their leader Minnow was an expert in media propaganda and he finagled a way for Dregana Vin to become Mayor of Aria

Dregana acquired surviving refugees of the Artillery liquidation and she formed a mafia from it
Through Minnow, The Reich began providing Ammunition with competition in vice across Corellia
There was gang warfare again

The Reich got a foothold in Dewval

Surd Dalba (Super Dave) was made mafia boss in Dewval for the Reich

Vitolix and Teronix (Phil Mud and Bill Mud) sold out Ammunition and joined the Reich

Albion fell to the Reich

Drav Abra (Rita Davita) became Minnow's bodyguard

Bail Dofra (Pinche Loafer) rebuilt the Regime academies in Fugue and made them Reich academies

G'rose Jishak (Grimbo Jones) was put in charge of the media empire that Minnow grew on Corellia Ammunition fought back

Ammunition waited for Dregana Vin to travel to Canon and they laid a trap

Dregana barely escaped with her life and fled to Aria

Ammunition took back Canon from the Reich and killed Might Crumb (Lee Hagman) who had been running the Cantina Complex in Canon

Ammunition pursued Dregana back to Aria

Minnow was so angry about his crumb being killed that he called in his son, Kuddi the Hutt (Fritter) to help deal with Ammunition

Kuddi the Hutt remained in Sonata but sent his bodyguard, Shuk Jaya (Bill Grundy) to deal with Ammunition in Aria

Ammunition took down Aria piece by piece and finally killed Dregana Vin by squashing her between two crashing vehicles

Minnow sent Kuddi to Aria to get set up there and Minnow sent for his other son, Myrgyl the Hutt (Marooney) who was a dandy

Myrgyl stepped up the propaganda which caused G'rose Jishak to defect to Ammunition

Myrgyl was station in Waltz

Ammunition stormed Bolero and raided old military facilities

While in Bolero they noted that the academies were being rebuilt

Bail Dofra sent Reich initiates after Ammunition

Ammunition leaders split in half with Beretta leading a charge from Merc Island against Albion, and Jyl leading a charge against Reich forces in Fugue

Drav Abra was sent to bolster the defenses in Albion

Abra battled Beretta several times as Beretta's forces sought to take back Albion

Beretta's forces were able to take Plymouth and hang Vitolix

They chased Teronix back to Merc Island where he had some loyal mercs to fight for him Svorkbeard ripped Teronix in half
Abra escaped and Albion was liberated, for a time there were two galactic spaceports operating, one for the Reich in Sonata and the other for Ammunition in Albion

Beretta's forces returned to Blue Hill to recover, but Minnow traveled to Blue Hill
S1-K0 "Psycho" (Ar Vin) had been working for Minnow secretly while serving Ammunition in Blue Hill
Psycho helped Minnow arrive in Blue Hill undetected
When Jyl's crew returned to Blue Hill from Fugue, Psycho attacked Jyl and Minnow attacked Beretta
Beretta and Jyl were almost killed
Minnow returned to Fugue, but Ammunition caught up to Psycho who thought he could stay in Blue Hill disguised
Colt-45 reprogrammed a warehouse full of droids to attack the disguised Psycho

Ammunition had no time to recover and went after Surd Dalba in Dewval to dismantle his mafia racket there and take back full control of Opus
Surd Dalba retaliated by attacking Blue Hill
Colt-45 protected Blue Hill while Ammunition focused on Dewval
Haas and T'rad had laid low on a sovereign island of little renown. They had quietly built up a militia force there. They contacted Minnow and pledged themselves to his cause and the Reich
Minnow sent Haas and T'rad reinforcements
Haas and T'rad showed up in Blue Hill to support Surd Dalba
Colt-45 and his Ammunition forces were pinned down
Colt-45 fought hard and took back Blue Hill, forcing Dalba back to Dewval, and Colt chased Haas and T'rad back to their bases on the outskirts of Blue Hill
Colt decimated their forces and hung Haas and T'rad by each other's intestines

Colt regained the other Ammunition leaders fighting in Dewval
Dalba escaped to the jungles in the south of Opus, but there Ammunition discovered that Dalba had secretly been constructing a spaceport in the jungles which would have allowed for an invasion of Opus
Ammunition carpet bombed the spaceport to oblivion, which included Dalba who was trying to escape the hangar in a ship
Reich forces made one more attempt on taking Blue Hill, but failed and left Fugue open to a counter-attack
Small skirmishes continued in Opus, while Ammunition took the bulk of their forces back to Fugue, bolstered by Albion forces Ammunition invaded Waltz and killed Myrgyl the Hutt by feeding her to death Ammunition invaded Canon and Pastorale and Suite, clearing it of Reich forces
The Reich only retained Aria, Sonata, and Bolero

Since the liquidation of Artillery, RT-62 had been laying low, but was now commissioned by Minnow
RT-62 stepped in and captured some of the Ammunition leaders on their return to Blue Hill, while other leaders stayed in Fugue
Minnow had the captured leaders shipped off-planet

Ammunition was now fully implicated in galactic affairs

On Corellia, Sulk Esher and G'rose Jishak were left in charge of Ammunition

Minnow left RT-62 in charge of Reich affairs on Corellia, and he was aided by Bail Dofra

Minnow, Kuddi, Shuk Jaya, and Drav Abra left Corellia with the captive Ammunition leaders

The other Ammunition leaders set off to retrieve their friends and make new allies along the way

Secretly, RT-62, Bail Dofra, G'rose Jishak, and Sulk Esher began working together and put aside

Ammunition and Reich differences. They restructured and stabilized the planet under their own rule

It took several years for Ammunition leaders to fight back against Minnow and retrieve their friends

On Corellia, RT-62 ran Opus, Bokroy was made Pope and Arz made the King of Chorus, Sulk Esher installed herself as the figurehead in Albion, Bail Dofra was the leader of the Reich in Fugue and changed the name back to The Regime, and G'rose Jishak became Mayor of Aria

Effectively, this group ran Corellia completely for over a decade

Minnow and his entourage had returned to his base on Ryloth where he held the Ammunition leaders as prisoners

The Galaxy was still ruled by the Hutt Empire and Gotta III was the emperor

Gotta I had led a very peaceful era for the galaxy, but Gotta II had allowed for degradation

Gotta III (Han Zrkr) put down Gotta II and took over, while trying to restore peace to the galaxy

Gotta III went back to what had worked with Gotta I's rule – a strong leader for the Sith, a strong leader for the Jedi, a strong leader for the Republic, and all allied with Gotta

Gotta III had supported Wal Vader's (Wal Vader) rise to power in the Sith

Vader had to battle several Dark Lords during the rule of Gotta II to ascend to top spot

Gotta III supported Master Bula Chaser (Tulak Hord) as the leader of the Jedi Order and Master Bula consolidated her power through mutual support of Republic Senator, Seen Livia (Tee Bona)

Gotta III was running the Syndicate which Teaa Nikkuz had once formed and brought to power as the iron fist of the Gotta's rule

Gotta III wanted to find someone else to run the Syndicate and believed that Ammunition would be ideal

Gotta III had incentive to help Ammunition leaders free their captives from Minnow the Hutt

Ryloth was the Hutt capital and there was too much politics for Gotta to demand anything of Minnow that was based in a personal grudge

Nal Hutta was the home planet and Gotta could do what he wanted there

Also, in Hutt space was Sleheyron which was the Twi'lek planet given to the twilek by the Hutts when the Hutts genetically engineered the species into being

Also, Malastare was the Gran planet given to them after the Hutts engineered that species also

Nar Shaddaa was a galactic spaceport moon for galactic business in Hutt space

Minnow had his own city on Ryloth where he kept his prisoners

Jyl and Colt-45 had to save their guys and knew that the direct approach would not work

They contacted Gotta III for help and he sent them Wal Vader, Master Bula, and Senator Livia

Colt-45 and Jyl split up to try two different approaches to reach Ryloth

Colt posed as an unlicensed assassin (his advanced chassis allowing him to be misperceived as humanoid)

Colt worked his way up in Divan the Hutt's (Maude) criminal empire on Nar Shaddaa

If Colt could get closer to Divan and be a personal guard, then he would have access to Ryloth

Colt had many assassination missions for Divan the Hutt, including executing Dr. Broga (Harry Polyp) who had programmed Divan's droid workers and been caught making them spies for Divan's competitor, Lefer Dolgay (Ben Gay) (ironically, another droid disguised as humanoid)

Colt was willing to let Broga live, but Broga forced Colt to shoot him, while Colt rigged Dolgay to self-destruct

Colt used some of Dolgay's tech to make his own disguise more effective

Dolgay had had two Gamorrean bodyguards that ran his vice operations. The Gamorreans, M'lurg (Peanut Butter Phil) and Burkk (Powder Bill) had run at the site of Colt, but Colt caught up to them and assassinated them in one of their rape brothels. Colt gave the pair the human centipede treatment, stuffing one into the other and decapitating the other

Colt's next mission required the help of Senator Livia

Colt was to infiltrate a Mandalorian stronghold where he was to assassinate Kel Zuka (Noggens) and Ruffi Xarga (Burgerboy) because they had been rigging death matches in Divan's gambling racket

Senator Livia was able to acquire the access passes needed to enter the Mandalorian compound

Colt shot his way through Mando mercs and then fought Zuka and Xarga in hand-to-hand combat, with Colt beating both to death with fists

Divan was very happy with Colt's work as an outside contractor

Divan gave Colt one more special mission – to kill Cuso the Hutt (Alistair Brown as Poodog) who had a base on Malastare

Colt infiltrated Cuso's base and hopped on Cuso's ship as she was fleeing. Colt broke her arms and threw her off the ship

Colt returned to Nar Shaddaa and cleaned up some local messes for Divan. There were twilek gangs trying to takeover some of Divan's Cantina complexes on Nar Shaddaa

Master Bula showed up to help Colt with the cleanup

Colt and Master Bula took down El Kalim (Bill Davina) and his brother Ving Sam Kalim (Vert Clint)

The Kalim brother's master, Bhatti Kal (Bill Baker) showed up and planted a bomb that was to be detonated and kill Master Bula, however, Colt was hiding in the shadows of Bhatti's sanctum sanctorum and murdered him without letting his finger hit the detonator button

Bhatti had left a parting gift however, and a series of bombs detonated across Nar Shaddaa triggered by Bhatti's death

Divan lost many soldiers and personnel, and much of her property was destroyed to the mad bomber

Divan need bacta for her people that had been injured and was gouged by two Selkath, Riel Sh'alín and Kip K'oival (Bones and David Bowie)

Colt executed the pair of Kiken-loving shysters in one of their spa complexes on Sleyheron

Wal Vader introduced himself to Colt. Vader had robbed the Selkath of their bacta supply

Colt put Divan in touch with Gotta III for a better price on bacta

Colt and Vader met with Divan and explained the truth to her

She agreed to help with the Minnow problem if Colt and Vader would do one more set of missions for her

Divan wanted to lay a hurt on the Kikens

The Kikens were unlike the Hutts who were upfront about their shady businesses. The Kikens ran their shady businesses through the Quarren Syndicate and then otherwise pretended in the galaxy to be benevolent and peaceful

Divan wanted particular Quarren lieutenants eliminated, but the assassinations would draw out the Kiken Jedi Master who was behind the Quarren business in that sector that Divan was going after

Colt and Vader had a contact in Kiken star system, the Gran Velma Ortmin (Pud Pest)

Velma set up a meeting, but Colt and Vader agreed that the best way to flush out their targets was to kill Velma and make it look like a Quarren rival

The Quarrens to be eliminated had a meeting to discuss the assassination of Velma

Colt and Vader raided the meeting and executed all their targets

The Kiken Jedi, Master Heba (Al Vin) showed up to deal with Vader and Colt

Vader and Heba battled and Vader cut Heba in half and while Heba was using Force to pull himself together, Colt threw Heba into a spaceship turbine

The death of Master Heba led to Colt and Vader being pursued by his apprentices from the Jedi Academy, the Bith Grin Bron (Malan Brown) and the Aqualish Turk Droba (Ren Brown)

Master Bula joined Colt and Vader to help protect them from Grin and Turk

The trio were held up at the border of Kiken space and decided to hide on a planet run by Kaminoan engineers

The lead Kaminoan engineer was Herr Wain (Alistair Baker) and she ratted out the trio to Grin and Turk who arrived on the planet to battle and avenge Master Heba

Master Bula attempted to mediate the issue, but Grin and Turk attacked her

The trio fought off Grin and Turk, while Herr Wain sent her personal clone troopers in defense of Grin and Turk

The trio prevailed and executed Grin and Turk, as well as Herr Wain

The trio used Kaminoan codes and ships to escape Kiken space

The trio's ship was intercepted by Divan's forces. Divan was intending to scapegoat Colt for the Kiken and Quarren assassinations

Senator Livia sent ships to protect Colt, Bula, and Vader

They won the space battle and then returned to Nar Shaddaa to deal with Divan the Hutt

Colt called Jyl and Jyl showed up to kill Divan (cut down in the shower)

All of Colt's work was now seemingly for nothing, but Jyl had been doing her own missions and getting somewhere with them

Jyl had presented herself as a dueling and gladiator champion and she had worked her way up in the cantina circuits

The tournament of champions was on Ryloth and Jyl had earned a spot

Colt changed his appearance to that of a service droid and joined Jyl on Ryloth in her service

They got a lay of the land and then began going after Minnow's people

They found a child brothel complex run by a Gran and female twilek, Ko'pu'ti and Yura Bean (Pud Gumbo and Gringo)

They burned the pimp to death slowly and then fed the madam to her guard beasts
Drav Abra was sent by Minnow to investigate the problem and resolve it not yet knowing it was Jyl and Colt

Jyl and Colt attacked Abra and her troops. Abra fled

Jyl and Colt sent false intel making it seem they were going direct for Minnow but instead they went to the estate of Minnow's parents and gayest son. They massacred Minnow's entire family

Abra showed up a little late but was able to chase Colt and Jyl off

Abra was joined by Shuk Jaya and they chased after Jyl and Colt

Jyl and Colt were trapped in a spice refinery. They fought their way out and killed Shuk Jaya in order to escape

Kuddi was beside himself with grief to lose Shuk and he attacked Abra

Abra killed Kuddi and then had to escape back to Corellia and rejoin the Reich

There was a manhunt for Jyl and Colt across Ryloth

Jyl and Colt went for clues on the whereabouts of the captured Ammunition leaders

Jyl and Colt raided another brothel complex and found the location of a sex slave workcamp

Jyl and Colt discovered that the captured Ammunition leaders were not on Ryloth, but rather were being held on Klatooine where Minnow had a fortress base that no one knew about

Jyl and Colt got help from Vader and Bula to escape Ryloth

Together, they traveled to Klatooine

Klatooine was a run down mining planet that featured a series of border towns ruled by gunslinger violence

Minnow had retreated to the fortress but didn't think that Jyl knew where it was and didn't know that they were on Klatooine

While Jyl and her crew investigated the planet, they had to blend in and so they participated in gun dueling, gladiator fights, and even gang wars

Eventually, Jyl and her crew discovered the fortress and they raided it, killing many Minnow heavies and lieutenants on the way

Minnow was alerted and grabbed Beretta and took her to a residence on Sleheyron

Jyl and her crew liberated the other Ammunition leaders

The warden of the fortress facility, Warden Garms (Pat March) had starved many of his prisoners and others he disliked in a giant pit. Ammunition threw Garms into the pit and those below fed on him

On Sleheyron, the male Ammunition were turned away and denied entry

The female Ammunition leaders continued on and stayed in a resort complex while they got a lay of the land

The ruling about splitting up the females had been a ploy crafted by Sulk Esher

Sulk Esher was very ambitious and while running Corellia had learned of Jyl and Colt's exploits and she knew that Ammunition had Gotta III's support

Sulk was proactive and decided to make an assassination attempt on Jyl and the other female Ammunition leaders

Sulk Esher, Bail Dofra, Drav Abra, and G'rose Jishak arrived on Sleheyron and set a trap for Jyl and the others

Jyl and the others were being hunted by someone who knew them quite well
Jyl's lightsaber was sabotaged and she had to quickly modify it into a light machete
Jyl got separated from the others and had to fight her way through Sulk's forces on Sleheyron
Jyl took down G'rose Jishak and her elite female guard
The other female Ammunition leaders were captured and imprisoned in a facility on Sleheyron Jyl raided the facility and killed Bail Dofra by force crushing his skull
Lippy Crumb (Hermit Harelip) was the warden of the prison and captured Jyl Jyl and the others broke out of their cells and reconvened. They killed Lippy together by throwing him back and forth until his fragile frame was shattered
They prepared for a raid of Minnow's residence where Beretta was being held Jyl realized that there was no way to get to Beretta safely, so they contacted Senator Livia

Senator Livia prepared a ruse whereby Ammunition was to bomb the bottom of Minnow's building and then Livia's contact would reach out to Minnow and offer him asylum on Coruscant
The gamble paid off and Minnow fled with Beretta to Coruscant
Minnow sought the protection of Kimmpa the Hutt (Harry Degeneres) on Coruscant Kimmpa tried to protect Minnow but her facility was raided fast and hard by Ammunition
Kimmpa was skewered by her own metal BBQ spit
Minnow tried to escape to the roof with Beretta, and Minnow gave a dramatic speech
But Jyl killed Minnow with a perfect shot to the forehead just as Minnow was going to try and throw
Beretta off the roof and jump in his ship

The Ammunition leaders were all safe
Ammunition returned to Corellia to sort out their affairs there
RT-62 had fled when Sulk had decided to attack Jyl Drav Abra had also fled once she realized that Ammunition would return and take back control of Corellia
Sulk Esher was on the run across the galaxy and Ammunition were after her Gotta III, Vader, Bula, and Livia all lent help to Ammunition on the rebuilding project in Corellia
The only real problems to solve on Corellia was that Pope Bokroy and King Arz had taken over the planet once RT-62 and Sulk had left

Ammunition faced off against the Pope and King and it was a quick bloody war
Bokroy and Arz were executed and the video circulated the planet Bokroy and Arz were given a friend or foe prisoner's wager duel execution and they both decided to shoot each other dead
Ammunition cleaned up the remnants of the Reich/Regime and brought order back to Corellia
Corellia greatly prospered during the Gotta III rule
Sulk Esher ventured deep into old Sith Empire space and found both Balbara and Thul Husk
Eventually, Drav Abra was revealed as a droid and along with RT-62 they sought out Sulk

Ben Gay as Lefer Dolgay (droid competitor against Divan) – explosive countdown Peanut Butter Phil as M’lurg (Gamorrean guard of Dolgay) – decapitated Powder Bill as Burkk (Gamorrean guard of Dolgay) – suffocated
Noggens as Kel Zuka (Mandalorian gladiator) – beaten to death
Burgerboy as Ruffi Xarga (Mandalorian gladiator) – beaten to death

Alistair Brown as Cuso the Hutt (Malastare-based Hutt) – thrown out of ship
Bill Davina as El Kalim (twilek gangster) – lightsaber death
Vert Clint as Ving Sam Kalim (twilek gangster) – lightsaber death
Bill Baker as Bhatti Kal (twilek gangster) – strangled
David Bowie as Riel Sh'alín (Kiken loving Selkath kolto dealers) – neck snapped Bones as Kip K'oival (Kiken loving Selkath kolto dealers) – shot
Pud Pest as Velma Ortmin (Gran ambassador in Kiken space) – shrapnel from cake blew up in face
Al Vin as Master Heba (Kiken Jedi Master) – split in half and then shredded Malan Brown as Grin Bron (Bith Jedi) – lightsaber through ears
Ren Brown as Turk Dorba (Aqualish Jedi) – quartered
Alistair Baker as Herr Wain (Kaminoan engineer) – thrown off a cliff
Pud Gumby as Ko'pu'ti (Gran pimp) – slow burn
Gringo as Yura Bean (Twilek madam) – fed to beasts
Pat March as Warden Garms (warden on Klatooine) – fed to his prisoners
Hermit Harelip as Lippy Crumb (warden on Sleyheyron) – hot potato
Harry Degeneres as Kimmpa the Hutt (Hutt on Coruscant) – skewered

STAR WARS – HUTT EMPIRE: THUL HUSK GOTTA IV

(see bottom of doc for cast of characters)

The rule of Gotta III (Han Zrkr) was prosperous for the galaxy and Ammunition eventually took over the duties of the Syndicate

Gotta III handed off rule to Gotta IV (Leesbad)

Gotta IV let the galaxy turn to shit worse than Gotta II had

Under the rule of Gotta IV, the galaxy became a weak Republic, the Syndicate and Gotta IV focused on vice, bounty hunting had few rules, and the Jedi and Sith waged wars all the time

Balbara remained deep in the old Sith Empire

Darth Gor rarely participated in events

Thul Husk was also in deep in the old Sith Empire

Balbara had taught Sulk Esher the ways of the dark side of the Force and this kept Sulk alive through a meditative state

Sulk became obsessed with her Corellian experience

RT-62 and Drav Abra were droids and were still operational and they were lurking around Sulk without her awareness

Sulk met Thul Husk and became unhinged

Thul explained the nature of the Force to Sulk Esher

The Force is an astral plane where after death, those that were in touch with the Force can exist and continue to participate in the galaxy mainly as observers... essentially, they become coaches for those who are living mortally in the physical galaxy

Different species can have their own space in the astral plane of the Force, and Hutts, Kikens, and Wookies had their own semi-private Force experience

The true original Sith (snake men) died, joined the Force and from the Force created Thul Husk
These snake men were known as the B'rue and they had pod birthed when they were mortals
In the chicken-egg dilemma, they had been immaculately conceived in their pods
Thul was alive in the Force but effectively dead as he walked around the galaxy in mortal form
Thul was immediately in communication with the B'rue who created him and he can exist in the Force at the same time that he is living mortally
The B'rue had hoped that Thul would be their servant in the galaxy achieving things that aren't possible from a position on the astral plane, however, Thul proved to be more powerful than expected
Thul is loyal to the B'rue in that he listens to them and will not attack them, he also ignores most, if not all, of their commands

Thul Husk believes in balance in the Force and he hates neutrality
For Thul, the worst are those who perform some acts that are light-side motivated, and other acts that are dark-side motivated
For Thul, balance in the force means that each action attempts to mediate light and dark, and the action gives a little bit of reflection on both light and dark
Thul is against collectivism and promotes individualism... responsibility, duty, and introspection
For Thul, everyone must express light and dark in an honest, balanced way
The B'rue were wicked dark side creators and became fed up with Thul Husk

When the B'rue existed mortally in the galaxy there were few advanced species, in fact, there were only four species that were space-faring: B'rue, Cathar/Rathar, Zrqr/Arzr, Rakata
The first B'rue that died mortally then created Thul Husk, therefore, Thul Husk existed during this earliest era of the galaxy
The four advanced species co-existed for a time, but then the B'rue started a Galactic Civil War which laid waste to the galaxy
The ancient Cathar were a minority of fuzzy cat people and the majority of the species were the Rathar who were hairless (known as cathar in KOTOR)
The ancient Zrkr were a minority of fuzzy wolf people and the majority of the species were the Arzr who were hairless

Minoor (Bill Bunker) was the leader of the B'rue that were living mortally and who started the civil war
The Cathar and Zrkr teamed up to deal with the B'rue, however, the Rathar, Arzr, and Rakata would not help at first
Thul Husk lent support to the Cathar and Zrkr which then caused Queen Marqt (Fat bd) of the Rathar to join the B'rue
The leader of the Arzr, Raeth (Lee Vin), offered to join the Cathar/Zrkr alliance, but then turned traitor

A young Cathar warrior, Mandias (Kaxa Rol) stepped forward to become queen
The Rakata supported Mandias and joined the war in support of the Cathar and Zrkr
The leader of the Rakata was not a Rakata but a man of an unknown species known as The Blueman (Wal Vader)

The Blueman had evolved from ancient firaxa shark on Manaan but The Blue Man had been the only survivor of a neurological disorder... which actually was the Blueman wielding Force against his own people because they were rotten

Cathar generals, Rosias and Henris (Hed and Norton) pushed back the B'rue

The leader of the Zrkr, Han Zrkr (Han Zrkr) systematically destroyed the Arzr

Han Zrkr battled Raeth and defeated him in a critical battle

The B'rue retreated deeper into what would later become the old Sith Empire space

Cathar and Zrkr focused on the Rathar, and Mandias captured Marqt and executed her

The B'rue recovered and built up a new force of young warriors, including the real Naga Sadow (Naga Sadow) who would later defect and partner with Thul Husk.

The B'rue pushed out and stopped at an inhospitable volcanic planet that would later become Korriban
Minoor built a temple on Korriban

The B'rue unleashed a new wave of attacks which were devastating

The Zrkr leader, the real Tulak Hord (Tulak Hord) held off the B'rue in decisive battles

Zrkr leaders Orko Zrkr (Alan) and Ruth Zrkr (Ruth) were key figures

Cathar leaders Tabbi (Tee Bona) and Lon (Sobek Ra) were key figures

By the end of the civil war, most of all of the species were wiped out

Mandias and Han Zrkr confronted Minoor on Korriban and dragged him into lava

The only species that still had a civilization were the Rakata, the rest were scattered communities

The Rakata never had an Infinite Empire which was a myth

Thul Husk approached the Rakata and gave them a task

The Rakata had to use the adaptive DNA of the first species and cross-pollinate it throughout the galaxy for species on planets that had the potential to evolve

The accelerated development meant that many species would end up bipedal and tool-wielding around the same time

Over time, the Rakata ended up atavistic and the other species had few members and no civilization

Thul's history was explained to Sulk while Artie and Abra listened in

Thul then left Sulk alone

Sulk investigated Thul's temple and found the Recursion Machine

Sulk entered the Recursion Machine

Sulk entered what was seemingly a simulator that interfaced with the cerebral cortex and reconstructed reality for the individual

Inside the Recursion Machine, Sulk was able to observe and participate in the galaxy, but a different version

The different version had the same species and languages, planets, etc., however there was no Force and no "magic"

Also, there was one species different than the others – the oldest and most powerful species was the Whoness

The Whoness were superior in size, intellect, and longevity

The Whoness had mediated the galaxy responsibly and they had invented most advanced weapons and tech allowing them to nix the other species from developing such things... tech that would destroy species

RT-62 and Abra interfaced with the Recursion Machine and experienced alongside Sulk
Sulk, Artie and Abra were able to participate in the galaxy through particular individuals, and they could observe most of the galaxy

Lord Whoness (Thul Husk) was a powerful Whoness who was more social and amiable than most Whoness
Lord Whoness enjoyed traveling the galaxy (unlike most Whoness) and he had become an author and written a book series about a planet called Gaia which presented the galaxy on one planet as different ethnicities and nations as opposed to different species and planets

The Gaia series was very influential and it made Lord Whoness a galactic celebrity

Lord Whoness enjoyed hanging out among Achewtans (a species that existed in the Gotta galaxy but existed in secrecy)

Achewtans were of average size, but they had superior physicality and intellect to rival the Whoness

Lord Whoness had some Achewtan besties – Achewta (Kaxa Rol), Nayomi (Naga Sadow), Daphne (Tulak Hord), Nautica (Hed)

Sim tech had been banned across the galaxy because it was deemed that regular beings would waste their lives in the simulators

The Whoness controlled all the development of sim tech

However, with the popularity of the Gaia series, Lord Whoness pitched to his people that they should allow the galaxy the sim tech if it were used to teach tolerance

Lord Whoness was permitted to have a trial version of the sim tech

Lord Whoness launched the beta trial for the sim Gaia experience

Sulk, Artie and Abra were able to interface with the Gaia Sim through performing as beings in the Recursion Machine

Sulk became obsessed with Adam (a man in the Gaia Sim) and was convinced that it was Thul's character. She was most interested in being a pain in the ass to Adam

Sulk left the Recursion Machine and brought others from the galaxy during the rule of Gotta IV and had her servants enter the Recursion Machine and then the Gaia Sim within the Recursion Machine

Sulk's crew set themselves to task on being a pain to Adam

Artie and Abra set up as Adam's parents

*This is an ongoing story and we don't know how it ends yet

STAR WARS – HUTT EMPIRE: NISTELROOY GOTTA V

(see bottom of doc for cast of characters)

Gotta V rebuilt the galaxy, however, what he put in place was the structure that was to become the familiar Lucas style Star Wars: religious orders of Jedi and Sith with their imbalance in the Force, Hutts are gangsters, insidious Kiken conglomeration, and the toothless Republic prone to conquests by ambitious species such as, Mandalorians

On a planet, Odin, that was a new addition to the galactic community, there was a twilek bounty hunter, Nistelrooy and her Wookiee companion Sobacca

Odin was part of a binary star system and Odin's moon had a dark side covered in ice with colonies

Additionally a red planet next to Odin had been colonized once Odin's people learned they were part of a larger galactic community

The blue moon was Cinta, and the red planet was Tyrus

Ambitious Arret the Hutt (Mandingus) was hustling for power against Gotta V and he used Odin as an example of what happens when you mess with him

Arret the Hutt had a large Trandoshan slaver and droid army

Arret invaded Odin and took almost all its people away as slaves, including recent immigrants from around the galaxy

Nistelrooy was processed for slavery and prepared as an "Amazu" – a female warrior expected to give sexual pleasure to her master as well as protection through combat (male version is "Ubese")

While on her new master's yacht, Nistelrooy freed herself by murdering the two madams that pimped out the Amazu

One of the Amazu madams was a sadistic Bith known as Haaku (Bif Betem) and the other madam was the Aqualish, Menga (Bifford)

Nistelrooy tied them together and drowned them

Nistelrooy moved onto her new master, Yager the Hutt (Joe Stool) and riddled him with bullets

Nistelrooy also freed two Ubese slaves and native Odinites, Garick and Bruss (Har Bur and Al Berlin)

The trio traveled back to Odin

Rayvern was doing his own independent mission in the galaxy and knew nothing of the troubles on Odin
However, he learned of Odin's fate when he went after a Kiken Jedi Master, Havi (Gif Getem) who had acquired the strongest male Odinites and was planning on torturing them and brainwashing them so that they became loyal to the Kiken cause

Rayvern freed the Odinites but Havi used his Force powers to instantly kill most of them in spite

Rayvern pursued Havi and took down ten of his best guards, followed by Havi's mother, Sang (Gary Getem)

Rayvern confronted Havi who begged for his life and then prophesized Rayvern's doom. Rayvern ran his lightsaber blade through Havi's forehead

Rayvern was able to rescue Obam (Malistair), a Selkath prison guard

Rayvern and Obam traveled to Odin to investigate

Rayvern and Obam made it Odin but were captured by Arret's Trandoshan forces

On the Trandoshan ship they ran into Nistelrooy who was also making her way back

They destroyed the Trandoshan cruiser and escaped to the surface of Odin and a remote island, Coda

The Trandoshan and Droid army were still patrolling Odin

Rayvern, Nistelrooy, Garick, Bruss, and Obam traveled to Nistelrooy's old home on Coda, the town of Covent Garden

Willy Hoffman (The Hideous Twist) was still on Coda and seemingly the only survivor

Willy had been a hermit on Coda before the occupation

The group wiped out a Trandoshan patrol and acquired their foreman droid

They reprogrammed the droid, M0-U5 "Mouse" (Ruth)

Willy knew of a handful of outposts on Odin that had repelled the Trandoshan/Droid invasion

The most secure outpost was where Dr. Ben Rich (Norton) was working on powerful weapons to repel the alien invaders

Willy felt it was important to get Mouse to Dr Dick

The crew reached Dr Dick's outpost and they were safe in the bunker complex

However, the bunker complex had a leadership hierarchy among the survivors and a self-proclaimed "mayor", Jen Scholpe (Harry Dejanairo)

Led by Scholpe, the survivors were beginning to venture out from the bunker complex and redevelop a township erroneously believing that the Arret has expended his resources and would leave the survivors alone

The township was raided shortly after by Arret droids, and they sacked the new township and murdered most of the survivors

Scholpe's righthand, Weequays, Ascir B'lok (Al Shammy), joined Nistelrooy's crew and they destroyed the backup transport of Trandoshans that had been sent to the township

The crew left the bunker outpost and found a safe hideout

Mouse analyzed the mainframe and determined that a survivor outpost on Cinta would be the best place to hide and mount a defense against Arret

Arret's forces hadn't cared much for Cinta although there were patrols on the icy blue moon

The survivor outpost had a leader, Ferd Gallow (Phil van Quif)

Gallow did not want the heat of Nistelrooy's crew

Before they could argue the point to a conclusion, Trandoshans and Droids raided the outpost which included a hangar with their spaceship where they had arrived

The crew had to search Cinta for parts so that Willy and Mouse could build a new ship

Nistelrooy's crew went on the offense and they raided the Trandoshan outpost on Cinta

This outpost had been the launching point for the invasion of Odin

The crew defeated Ulossk (Gil Gurney), the Trandoshan general and hung him by his innards

They also scavenged parts for their new ship

Later, the crew raided an extensive mine system and collected other parts for the ship and fuel

They also raided a comms tower and got relay parts and a downed escape shuttle for maneuvering flaps

They ambushed Trandoshan convoy arriving to back up the fallen Ulossk, and they raided that ship for a new engine

The new ship would be faster and have greater maneuverability than the invader ships

Arret's invading force had been on Cinta for some time while they prepared to take Odin

While there, Arret had built a brothel complex

Nistelrooy's crew raided the brothel and tortured the twilek Domo, Venn Vaga (Leech)

However, the crew were taken by surprise when Arret's son, Mobis the Hutt (Billy Idol) appeared from a secret chamber in the brothel and attacked

Mobis killed Garick and Bruss, but was then cut in half by a door that Mouse closed on him

Mobis had had a loyal guard of Trandoshan and Droids from among the invading army who carried out a will

Mobis had written about possessions of the Odin system going to those who avenged his death

His idiotic guard believed that the will was enforceable and they set out to destroy Nistelrooy's crew

Mouse discovered through a relay system that the Mobis guard were stationed on Tyrus the red planet

The new ship was constructed and they traveled to Tyrus to deal with Mobis's guard

On Tyrus there were other Odinite survivors led by Mon Calamari, Disp Leeman (Billy Boy)

Leeman was willing to help the Nistelrooy crew and provided them with intel on the enemy hangar

The crew destroyed the hangar and much of the Mobis guard ordnance and ships

The crew then traveled Tyrus looking for Mobis guard sentries and droid bunkers

The crew also rescued Odinite survivors on Tyrus and brought them back to Leeman

Arret had brought a pet Krayt dragon to Tyrus for fun

The dragon grounded Nistelrooy's crew's new ship

They had to travel Tyrus for more parts for repairs

When they were ready to depart, the remaining Mobis guard landed on Tyrus and summoned the Krayt Dragon (Fladge)

Nistelrooy's crew had to defeat the Mobis guard and the dragon before returning to Odin

Dr Dick got his laser satellite weapon working just in time to cut the dragon in half

The crew returned to Odin and discovered that Arret the Hutt was on Odin. They planned on attacking and killing Arret, however, an usurper known as Plage the Hutt was reinforced by Gotta V. Plage the Hutt (Gargamarcus) had his own private army and a war broke out between Arret and Plage's forces.

Arret retreated to his ship, but Sobacca (Sobek Ra) was waiting for him on the ship and assassinated him. Plage had shown up with a Sith Lord, Darth Arkon (Magunta).

Nistelrooy and Magunta had once been friends on Coruscant.

The Nistelrooy crew attempted to negotiate peace with Plage and Arkon, but Arkon attacked and killed Obam.

Sobacca saved the day and got the crew onto Arret's ship for a timely escape.

Plage had brought a pet krayt dragon to fight Arret's dragon and was disappointed to learn that the dragon on Tyrus was slain.

Plage unleashed his dragon on Odin.

Nistelrooy's crew fought to take back Odin from Plage.

The crew battled to take back the capital city, but Plage was in the front lines and gutted Ascir B'lok.

Nistelrooy's crew made a run for it, but were flanked by Plage's son, Patino the Hutt (Fred Jr.).

The crew slaughtered Patino and continued on.

They also had to try to bring online Dr Dick's laser satellite weapon.

Plage's troops recruited surviving Arret forces and Mobis guard on Cinta, Tyrus, and Odin.

Nistelrooy's crew was cut off while leaving the bunker complex and they had to escape during a chase.

The crew made their way back to Cinta.

They returned to the mine complex on Cinta and faced one of Plage's generals, a Mandalorian F'nge Lasper (Harry Harelip).

Finge died to a stubbed toe which caused a blood clot.

The crew left a tracking beacon in the body of Finge hoping that if Plage gave his general a proper burial then the Plage HQ would be revealed.

The ploy paid off and the crew learned that Plage had his base on Coda.

Patino's Domo, Kin Vesp (Jeff Baker) arrived to inform the crew that Plage had a bomb and was intending to destroy Odin.

The Nistelrooy crew headed to Coda to stop Plage, but were cut off by the Krayt Dragon.

Dr Dick managed to get his weapon working again and the dragon was destroyed.

The crew caught up to Plage's convoy with the bomb, they were confronted by the Mobis guard leader, Hossk (Raytard).

Kin Vesp volunteered to help distract Hossk so that Nistelrooy's crew could move on to face Plage.

Kin suicided, bombed Hossk.

The crew confronted Plage and beat him, then lighting his head on fire.

With Arret, Mobis, and Plage dead, it seemed Odin was liberated.

However, Scholpe, Darth Arkon, and Lamella Arblaster (Cinderelmo) were Odinites that now sought to take over the planet.

The trio of sellouts had brokered deals with powerful players in the galaxy, to exchange Odin system resources for support in them ruling the star system

Scholpe stole Dr Dick's research and learned to convert droids similarly to Mouse

Scholpe now had a droid army from leftovers of the Arret/Plage conquest

Scholpe set up a HQ on Tyrus

Nisty's crew raided Scholpe's base on Tyrus known as "Brickhouse"

Mouse found a companion among the droids – assassin droid V1-PR "Viper (Hed)

Viper shut down the droids in the Brickhouse

The Nisty crew left Tyrus and headed back to Coda, however, more of Scholpe's droids pursued

Darth Arkon showed up with a Trandoshan refugee army and they battled the droids

Nisty's crew thought they had escaped, but were confronted by Lamella who had her own fresh army granted by Rimbo the Hutt (RayVert)

Darth Arkon captured Willy Hoffman and fled to the mine complex on Cinta

Nisty's crew fought their way to Cinta to rescue Willy

They got him back without having to face Darth Arkon, but then on the way out of the mine they faced the Trandoshan general, Errsk (Ren Baker)

Errsk was crushed in his armoured vehicle

Nisty's crew returned to Odin, but Scholpe attacked yet they were then flanked by Darth Arkon's forces which once again gave Nisty's crew a chance to escape

Mouse and Viper corrupted systems on both sides to make it easier for the two enemies to wipe each other out

Scholpe's droids finished off Arkon's trandos

Darth Arkon's bodyguard, Gamorrean H'ammob (Al Bruges) was cut down by Sobacca while protecting Darth Arkon, allowing Arkon to escape

Lamella moved his fresh army onto Cinta and their HQ was the mine complex

Nisty's crew headed back to Cinta to battle Lamella's forces

Ferd Gallow was exposed as a traitor when he tried to imprison Nisty's crew and hold them for Lamella

Disp Leeman showed up at Cinta to help Nisty's crew

They battled through the mine complex taking out Lamella's army

However, Leeman was capture and tortured to death

The Nisty crew continued through the mine complex hoping to find Lamella, but instead they found his Rancor beast (Al Tomacco) which Nisty's crew defanged and exsanguinated

They continued on hoping to find Lamella but instead were confronted by Darth Arkon

Darth Arkon was almost killed and escaped to Tyrus

Meanwhile, Lamella was razing Cinta and turning all former outposts to rubble

Lamella took his forces offworld for a time

Scholpe now controlled Cinta and Arkon controlled Tyrus

Nisty's crew returned to Odin and fortified it against the Odinite menaces

On Odin, Odinites who had saved themselves from slavery at the hands of Arret now returned to their homeworld

A Chairman emerged as leader, Slim Fisto (Al Laird) and had a Marshall with him, Dr. Ike Davi (Pat Stroller)

Fisto and Davi planned to organize returning Odinites as an army that would take back Cinta and Tyrus and permanently banish the usurpers

Nisty's crew worked with the new Odinite govt, but they also acted independently

Davi's general, Bothan, Zy Lon Yin (Martini) joined Nisty's crew to help with some covert ops against the Brickhouse on Tyrus where Darth Arkon was holed-up

Zy Lon Yin was impatient with the covert nature of the operation and decided to charge

Darth Arkon decimated Yin's elite guard and Nisty's crew had difficulty making it out of the Brickhouse facility

Nisty's crew moved onto Cinta to finish off Scholpe

They discovered a new droid fortress built into a dam/waterfall system that was part of an abandoned terraforming project

Mouse and Viper commandeered another powerful droid, BA-88 (Kaxa Rol)

To access the dam fortress, the crew had to work through the ruins of a town that had been built by the terraformers

The town was empty but at the edge of the town they reached the start of the dam complex and had to face droid forces

Lamella's forces returned and interfered with Nisty's crew's mission to take out Scholpe

BA suggested that they return to Tyrus to finish off Arkon who was recovering from surgery (intel gained while in service to Scholpe)

Nisty's crew returned to Tyrus and confronted Arkon who was a weirdo that had undergone surgery to appear more Trandoshan

They destroyed Darth Arkon who was torn apart

Arkon's forces scattered across Tyrus without leadership

Lamella wanted Cinta back, so Scholpe took the droid forces to a space station facility Arret had constructed that was around a moon of the last planet in Odin's system – Canis

Lamella began attacking Tyrus and Odin from Cinta and had troops in all three places

One of Arkon's lieutenants, Trandoshan Albrr (Flynn Brown) joined Nisty's crew

Albrr had important information about Rimbo the Hutt who was sponsoring Lamella

After an attack by Lamella's forces, Nisty's crew used the Cinta dam complex droid fortress as their new HQ

Nisty's crew returned to Tyrus and cleaned it up wiping out all enemies, including the Ubese Odinite, Arlo Gorman (Quiffage) who had returned with the intention of ruling the red planet and who had brought bastard Odinites that didn't believe in the Fisto/Davi govt

Fisto/Davi sent returning Odinite colonizers to Tyrus to rebuild the colonies there

Although, Odinites mainly controlled Odin, Cinta, and Tyrus, Lamella's army continued to attack

Nisty's crew split up to help fight on all three fronts

There were casualties – Albrr was thrown from an escaping ship, and Rayvern decided to kill Zy Lon Yin who had become a liability

During the battles, Nisty's crew learned that Lamella's HQ was on Coda

Some Odinite bastards had pledged themselves to Arkon's cause and become a cult – the Cult of Arkon

The Cult of Arkon had a leader, Ginsberg (DooDoo Brown)
Nisty's crew tricked the Cult of Arkon into reinhabiting Covent Garden thus drawing out Lamella Lamella sent her general, Nik Thatch (Har Dur) to deal with the Cult of Arkon
Thatch was captured by Nisty but Ginsberg insanely turned against Nisty's crew Nisty's crew had to wipe out the cult and keep Thatch alive as a hostage
Ginsberg was launched into outer space through Rayvern's force powers

Thatch spilled his guts about how to access Lamella's base on Coda and then Thatch's guts were spilled Nisty's crew raided Lamella's base and executed Lamella with bullets and then a dramatic death sequence from Lamella

With Lamella and Arkon defeated, and Scholpe at the edge of the system, Rimbo the Hutt made an appearance

Rimbo arrived in the Odin system with his daughter, Ribala the Hutt (Al Denver)

Rimbo and Ribala showed up overconfident believing that the Lamella failure was simply that Lamella was weak as opposed to Nisty's crew being strong

In the first battle, Ribala was slaughtered and Rimbo backed off

Rimbo vowed revenge, but waited while Scholpe made a move

Rimbo hired bounty hunters from across the galaxy to come to the Odin system and take out Nisty's crew

Geonosian bounty hunter Wyn Fac (Jeffurt) showed up on Tyrus and corrupted Nisty's droid companions
Briefly, the droids turned against Nisty's crew, but the Wyn Fac was flushed out and executed

Wyn Fac was an expert in droid tech and his ship was capable of infiltrating Scholpe's space station at Canis However, when they boarded the ship, it registered the return of Wyn Fac and launched out to the next scheduled destination – a Trandosha slaver camp on a moon of an Outer Rim planet

Nisty's crew could not access the navicomputer and had to travel to the slaver camp

The slaver camp was full of Odinites but when the Trando guards noticed Nisty's crew coming out of Wyn
Fac's ship they gassed all the slaves, and only the elite prisoners survived in a different facility

Oddly, Scholpe showed up at the slaver camp and had transformed similarly to Darth Arkon. Scholpe had made himself a cyborg

It seemed that Scholpe had involvement in the enslaving of Odinites

One of the elite prisoners was an Odinite general from before the Arret invasion, General Olaf Gryn (Phil Clinton)

Olaf Gryn knew of Fisto and Davi and thought that he would make for a better leader. Nisty's crew decided to help him back to Odin if Olaf promised to abide by a democratic voting process

Upon returning to the Odin system, Olaf Gryn and Fisto/Davi forces butted heads and instead of a democratic process to create a new republic for Odinites, there was a civil war

The bloody civil war resulted in the surviving Odinites being slaughtered

Although there were two billion Odinites when Arret had attacked, there were only tens of thousands that had survived Arret's invasion, Mobis/Plage usurping, Scholpe/Arkon treachery, and Lamella/Rimbo purge

Nisty's crew backed Olaf Gryn in the civil war because Gryn had been agreeable to the democratic process, and it had been Fisto/Davi forces that attacked him and his supporters

The civil war had fronts on Cinta, Tyrus, and Odin

On Cinta, there were early victories

On Coda, Nisty's crew could not hold off the Fisto/Davi forces

On Tyrus, Davi was overrunning Gryn's forces, and then Scholpe showed up and it was a distraction that allowed Nisty's crew to kill Davi

Gryn and Nisty's crew pushed on Fisto's capital in Odin

The capital was taken and Fisto retreated

Fisto had a base on Tyrus

The Tyrus stronghold was raided but Scholpe had sent droids to reinforce Fisto

Fisto realized that the end game was about exterminating native Odinites. As an immigrant he recognized that his purpose was in vain and he suicided. The civil war was over

Nisty's crew sought peace talks with Scholpe

There were only thousands of native Odinites by the end of the civil war, but Gryn assumed leadership

Those Odinites that were not interested in Gryn's leadership fled to the Canis Space Station

Scholpe built a community for them on the space station

Many of the bounty hunters hired by Rimbo were laying low on the Canis space station

A droid on Canis Station, Z2-K2 "Cato" (Han Zrkr) noticed the insanity of Scholpe and that Rimbo's bounty hunters would soon take over the station and so he set out to stop them

A Duros bounty hunter, Bas Mucha (Bur Baker), a Bothan bounty hunter, Llaonta (Ray Baker), and a pair of Gamorrean hunters, Morruk and Orik Franzz (Bur Brown and Brey Baker) were forming an alliance on Canis Station

Another twilek assassin pair (male and female) – Arbok Khan and Sleyha Khan (Breyed Wogs and Odd Ottoman) were only agreeable to working with Bas Mucha

Cato intended to kill the sextet of bounty hunters, but Rimbo learned of the plot through Scholpe and showed up to capture Cato Robocop style

Cato was taken away and reprogrammed as an assassin for Gotta V's Syndicate

Cato was commissioned to assassinate Kiken Masters

Cato's first target was Master Bara Vas (Jiffy Pouf) who was crushed

The next target was Master Shy Rang (Bill Groucho) who was thrown in a pit and fed to beasts

The next target was a Kiken apprentice Phag Entrocko (Al Gristle) who was cut in half

Marmura the Hutt (Ray Hag) ran to the defense of the Kikens and was a Kiken sympathizer

Rimbo and Marmura had once been married

Cato regained his control once the paradox of supporting Rimbo and Marmura presented

Cato raided Marmura's palace and executed her Domo, Gil Guch (Gif Gooch) but was overrun by Marmura's guard and had to retreat

Cato was approached by two Jedi knights, Val Halor (Wal Vader) and Iley Noxx (Tee Bona) who had been serving Kikens but believed that they had been deceived

They offered to help Cato with his problems on Canis Space Station

Cato accepted the help but they went after Gotta V first

Gotta V was captured and starved to death, but no one in the galaxy knew

Gotta V's domos Kit Tinto and F'lin Ossuk (Leesbad and Spatrack) stepped in and pretended that Gotta V was still alive and in power

Marmura knew what had happened so Tinto and Ossuk sent an overwhelming force to Marmura's hideout and smothered her

Cato, Halor and Noxx moved onto Canis Station

The trio executed the sextet of bounty hunters and then lowered the defenses of the station so that Nisty's crew could enter and deal with Scholpe

Nisty's crew took down Scholpe and the remaining droid forces

The other bounty hunters and scum fled the Canis Station and distributed themselves across Odin, Tyrus, and Cinta

Nisty's crew set up Canis Station as the spaceport for the Odin system and had a defense grid based on Willy's laser satellites

Nisty's crew returned to Odin and Olaf Gryn backed into the road stupidly and was run over by Nisty's crew
Nisty's crew had to work their way across the system wiping out the bounty hunters until the Odin system was free of alien interference and invaders

On Cinta, Vim Messi (Mussy Mohammed) had made the dam complex his base of operations

Nisty's crew defeated Vim's elite guard and then threw him into a reactor core

On Tyrus, Gundis Lorn (Ar Pharpha) had made the Brickhouse complex his base of operations

Nisty's crew defeated Gundis's elite guard and then dropped a house on Gundis

After the death of Olaf Gryn, the surviving Odinites needed a leader, however, Darth Shaw (Tulak Hord) showed up and slaughtered the whiny little bitches

Darth Shaw had been traveling the galaxy slaughtering native Odinites for their seedy ways

There were only a few hundred native Odinites that survived Shaw's purge

Nistelrooy approached Shaw and they had a discussion

They decided to work together and set up the Odin system so that it would be an impressive system in the future

Rimbo backed away from his vow to destroy Nistelrooy's crew

Nistelrooy's crew became the leaders of the Odin system and they decided who was allowed to enter the Odin system

STAR WARS – HUTT EMPIRE: THUL HUSK GOTTA PUTSCH

(see bottom of doc for cast of characters)

Eventually, the galaxy understood that Gotta V had died and that his presentation was phony
Most didn't care and they were happy to have the galaxy not bother with Gotta emperors
Sulk Esher was deep in the Old Sith Empire space obsessed with Thul Husk and existing in his Recursion Machine
RT-62 and Drav Abra were also in the Recursion Machine keeping tabs on Sulk Balbara and Darth Gor were still kicking around Rimbo had been murdered but no one was claiming it
Sulk Esher had lured an offshoot cult of the Mandalorians – jews for Mandos – to the Recursion Machine
The leader of the cult was Ord Mantell and his followers were also called Ord Mantell Ord Mantell was a clinker par excellence and could do nothing on his own... and he thought he was a forcewielder and could force others to do the work for him, but he was just using a teleprompter program that Thul Husk had installed in him when he was a baby Ord Mantell entered the Recursion Machine and discovered the Whoness Galaxy, and then he entered the Gaia Sim
Thul Husk used Adam to punish Ord Mantell
Ord lost his servants and had to leave
He was an angry little head about it
He gathered a new servant class, but was one less, and then went back into the Gaia Sim to get revenge
He got wiped out again, left and created his new servant class again with one fewer
In the end, Ord was on his own and refused to do anything because he was determined to remain a clinker

Ord died alone as a pointless character

Sulk Esher learned valuable lessons from Ord's fate

Meanwhile, the Billed 29 Syndicate was an upstart galactic PMC that was riding off the name of the Syndicate and exploiting the end of the Gotta Empire

The Billed 29 Syndicate gathered a massive force and marched into the Old Sith Empire

Once the army had passed the point of no return, Thul Husk went scorched earth on them cutting them off from supplies

Balbara and Darth Gor massacred the army and only the 29 leaders of the Billed 29 remained

The Billed 29 were listening to false idols in the force and they believed that they were fated to lose their army but that this was the master plan

The death of the army appeased and sated the appetite of Balbara and Darth Gor

The Billed 29 then got to the Recursion Machine and thought they destroyed it

The seeming destruction of the Recursion Machine converted their galaxy into the Whoness galaxy, with some significant hybridization, for example, the Whoness species did not exist

The Billed 29 had lost their connection to what they thought was the force because the Whoness galaxy had no magic and force

The Billed 29 scattered in fear and were systematically hunted down by heroes working for Thul Husk

N.B. The Billed 29 were what used to be referred to as the Pescatari
